

ITALY OFFICIALLY DECLARED WAR ON TURKEY THIS AFTERNOON; TROOPS WILL PROCEED TO LAND IN TRIPOLI; FLEET IS READY FOR OPERATIONS

MINISTER OF ITALIAN MARINE WIRES ITALY'S FLEET LYING OFF THE COAST OF TRIPOLI TO ASSUME THE OFFENSIVE, TURKEY HAVING FAILED TO MEET THE DEMANDS.

A WARLIKE SITUATION

Italian Cabinet Met This Morning at Eleven and the Refusal of Turkey to Answer Demands Made Relative to Tripoli Led to the Formal Announcement of War on the Part of the Italian Government at Two-thirty This Afternoon.

Rome, Sept. 29.—It was officially announced here this afternoon at two-thirty that a state of war existed between Italy and Turkey. The reason given by the Italian government is that Turkey has failed to meet the demands of the Italian ultimatum at noon today.

It is known that the Minister of Marine has sent a wireless dispatch to the commander of the Italian fleet lying off the coast of Tripoli to act immediately and it is expected that by this time the first gun has been fired in the present conflict.

The action this afternoon follows the meeting of the cabinet this morning, which met at eleven, at which time it was decided to proceed immediately with the measures previously determined upon in case Turkey did not grant Italy's demands.

Great Excitement. The formal announcement that war has been declared has caused a great commotion throughout the country and the Italian people for the most part are anxiously awaiting news of the actual starting of hostilities. The socialists have apparently failed in their efforts to stir up a nationalist rebellion at this time.

In A Nutshell. London, Sept. 29.—The day has been cast in shadow by the news that Italy has declared war on Turkey. Italian troops are being landed in Tripoli with orders to assume control of that country.

Navy Ready. The flower of the Italian navy is protecting the landing party; while other Italian warships with their guns ready for instant action, are patrolling the entire Mediterranean.

Will Move Landward. Within 48 hours the entire Italian army division will be in Tripoli, which for the next few days at least will be the theatre of action in the dispute.

Becomes Complicated. The situation was complicated this afternoon by a dispatch from Vienna received by the Central News which says the Turkish army reserves were hurriedly called to the colors and are being dispatched against the Greek frontier.

After Grece. The correspondent adds that Turkey realizing that she cannot defend Tripoli because of no navy, has determined to attack Greece.

Protest. The pretext is the integrity of Crete, it being stated that Turkey will demand that Greece immediately renounce all of her claims on the island.

Want Action. This demand is said to take the form of an ultimatum. England and Germany are admittedly alarmed and are trying to get the power whereby the hostilities shall be localized.

Gariboldi Weak. The Turkish guerrilla of the small Tripoli cities even though aided by the Arab population is hopelessly outnumbered, but it is believed will make a desperate resistance, and will, instead of surrendering withdraw into the interior.

No Fighting Yet. Up to the present no word of actual fighting has been received. Turkey cannot resist on the sea, and having neither transports or warships cannot reinforce troops in Tripoli.

In Constantinople. Martial law has been declared in Constantinople, and threats of massacres of Europeans are being made.

Specials Issued. The announcement of the final decision created the greatest excitement. Throughout the evening hours of the day the papers issued special editions announcing the Italian fleet was moving in plain sight of the coast of Tripoli and intimating that war might be declared any moment.

Evasive Answer. Turkey's reply to Italy's ultimatum, it is understood, completely conceded to Italy's economic claims in Tripoli but evaded the direct answer demanded by this government that Turkey would not resist the proposed occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene.

for to declare Italy and Turkey in a state of war.

A Blockade. The blockade of the entire coast of Tripoli and Cyrene which has been taken immediately and notification of this act will be sent to all neutral powers.

London, Sept. 29.—Word that Italy has occupied Tripoli in accordance to her threat and ultimatum, which Turkey has defied, is momentarily expected. Turkish forces will not resist according to latest advice received here. Such resistance would be useless. Italy's ultimatum expired at noon today, but the landing of troops was delayed until the usual consultation could be sent to foreign consuls.

The blockade of the coast of Tripoli, however, was complete. Turkey's strength is today even more than in the past, its reliance on fanaticism.

Foreigners in Danger. The life of every foreigner in Turkey has been endangered by Italian aggression and occupation of Tripoli will eventually be followed by massacres, which will bring the entire Turkish question to the front.

The situation in Tripoli is grave today. Foreign consulates are besieged by hundreds of persons imploring them to furnish transportation to some place out of the zone of impending hostilities.

Arabs Are Ready. Departing steamers are armed to the point. Steamers are under order to land everybody at Malta, whence the refugees will be distributed to their homes. Turkish troops, flanked by fierce Arab bands were drawn on outskirts of city of Tripoli early in the day ready to withdraw forces.

Meanwhile the first transports with the Italian army on board are steaming slowly back and forth under the guns of the Italian fleet.

Transports Enroute. Other transports are enroute and within the next 48 hours the entire invading force will be either in possession of Tripoli or off the port. The expeditionary force comprises of 100,000 men. The latest estimates of the number of Italians in Tripoli are 100,000. That the Turks will hold all of them as hostages even if they are not massacred, is the belief here.

British in Appeal. It is declared in diplomatic quarters that the British foreign office has addressed an appealing note to Italy appealing to her not to land an army of invasion in Tripoli at present. Serious consequences must inevitably result in the Balkans, it is pointed out. The situation is tense.

Anti-War Riots. Rome, Italy, Sept. 29.—Via Mondoline, France, three persons have been killed and many wounded at Parma, as a result of the anti war demonstrations which are spreading throughout Italy. A procession of working men carrying banners bearing socialist and anti war sentiments, attempted to block the passage of a regiment of reserve enroute to the barracks. The soldiers were ordered to fire. Advice from other sections of Italy tell of similar outbreaks.

The Turkish reply to the Italian ultimatum was delivered to the Italian government by the Turkish Ambassador today. It is believed to be the official rejection of Italian demands as indicated by earlier dispatches from Constantinople.

Cabinet A Unite. Constantinople, Turkey, Sept. 29.—It is semi-officially admitted that the cabinet is a unit in the rejection of the Italian demands and has cancelled the Sultan to resist the Italian aggression to the utmost.

Developments in Italian TURKO DISPUTE. Italian warships seen off Malta enroute to Tripoli.

Turkish reserves mobilized awaiting orders.

Italy gives Turkey 24 hours to agree to Italian occupation of Tripoli.

Italy's fleet leaving Tripoli. Lloyd's charge 40 per cent premium for insurance against war.

By GUGLIELMO FERRERO (Copyright, 1911, by the U. P. Assoc.) Rome, Italy, Sept. 29.—That there is a serious question Tripoli will be worth fighting for as a colonial possession was admitted in a statement prepared exclusively for the United Press by Guglielmo Ferrero, the famous Italian historian, whose "Greatness and Decline of Rome" ranks as one of the greatest modern historical works.

All that can be done, he said, was not intended other as an argument for or against occupation of Tripoli but merely a note of warning to the impulsiveness and enthusiastic expectations of the Italian people at a time when they seem bent on forcing their government to begin a system of colonial expansion similar to that of France and Germany. The statement follows:

A people is at liberty to choose or not to choose when it wants colonies. If it chooses to want them and seeks to found them, there can be proposed no other means save to occupy territory that is still poor; that is still somewhat empty or that for a long time has been semi-barbarous for the purpose of attempting to augment its value, investing in it wisely the capital necessary to bring it about. Territory already rich, developed and blossoming can only be found in countries of an older civilization. The profits, therefore, of a colonial undertaking can only be measured according to the probability of the territory which is to be easily rapidly increasing and growing in value.

But this is a problem that in the majority of instances human wisdom has been impotent to solve. There are few things that history demonstrates to man, but in the failure of predictions, for states and territories, it can. All surprises are possible, as are also all delusions in the infinite changing of human vicissitudes, the aspirations, the ideals and the needs of humanity.

Two centuries ago, for example, in the new countries, the hot territories had a greater value than those on the more temperate zones. But a century later when there came all the grand industries and all the mechanical inventions of modern civilization, the value of the former had declined, while the value of the latter had increased.

A century ago the immense plains in which Argentina sows its cereals and reaps such great masses of richness were only a desert and without value. But the overflow of European population, the growing demand for cereals, the progress of navigation and the railroad has converted in fifty years the desert into an Eldorado.

All of this merely goes to show that in the colonial policy, as in all other things human, it much depends upon good fortune, while the element of time is also one of the most important elements of success.

The only sure rule then, for a state to follow if it wishes to inaugurate and carry out a colonial policy is to take that which it can without excessive cost and danger and to make a colonial empire bear fruit like a vast plain already established; but it is necessary that it be allowed to fructify according to the circumstances, following the currents of the times, and keeping well in mind that human fortunes are perennially moving and changing; that in the world nothing is stable and eternal, not even the value of territory; not even the power of the state; and not even the greatness of the people.

Germany Alarmed. Berlin, Germany, Sept. 29.—The Berlin Press, with only a few exceptions today denounced what is termed Italy's brutal robbery, which is justified only by might. The foreign office admits great alarm over the outlook.

Press Droppers. Immediately following the declaration of war between Turkey and Italy there was a flood of selling orders received on the stock exchange from foreign brokers, because was so pronounced that the usual strong tone of the market could not withstand it and prices dropped from 1 to 2 points in most of the active stocks.

Captain Haines To RECEIVE A PARDON

Army Captain Held For Three Years Charged With Murder of Wm. Annis, Will Be Pardoned by Dix.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Evidence not adduced at the trial but now in the hands of Gov. Dix, led him to announce today that before long he would pardon Peter C. Haines, army captain, who killed William Annis at the Bay Side Yacht club three years ago.

CLARK'S NOMINATION FAVORED BY HEARST

William Randolph Puts A Quietus on "Dark Horse" Reports, When He Makes Statement Today.

New York, Sept. 29.—Putting a quietus on reports that he might not the dark horse role at the next Democratic national convention, William H. Hearst, who returned from Europe last night, gave the United Press a signed statement today, his first public announcement of his personal attitude in the coming campaign, by endorsing Champ Clark for the nomination.

TAFT ENTERTAINED AT IOWA'S CAPITAL IN ROYAL FASHION

Senator Cummins Among Prominent Men Who Received President on Arrival—in Address to 45,000.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 29.—Senator A. H. Cummins, and former Senator Lafe Young, headed the reception committee of notables who met President Taft's special train when it reached here this morning from Waterloo. They escorted him to waiting automobiles through a crowd of several hundred people and with a police escort followed by scores of prominent citizens, he was whisked through the decorated streets to the Grant club where he partook of breakfast with 200 business men and editors from Iowa towns.

The president's Waterloo speech, "The Relation of Government to Business," has met with the approval of the conservative element. After breakfast he was taken for an auto ride and then to the coliseum where he delivered his principal address before 45,000 people.

He was introduced by Gov. Carroll. The executive discussed his arbitration treaties now before the senate and expressed his belief in them.

Leaving Des Moines this afternoon the president prepared for three more stops in Iowa, Knoxville, Albion, and Ottumwa.

NEW LORD MAYOR OF LONDON WAS CHOSEN

Solemn Farce of Choosing Sir Thomas Crosby to Office Was Gone Through in London Today

London, Sept. 29.—Having been an alderman for thirteen years and filled the office of sheriff for one term, Sir Thomas Baer Crosby, wealthy merchant and financier, today went through the solemn farce of being elected Lord Mayor of the city of London. He will be formally installed in office on November 9, when the "Lord Mayor's Show" will take place.

Unlike other great municipalities, London's Lord Mayor is not chosen by the people, though there was a time some 300 or more years ago when they really were elected by the citizens. But the alderman, who are elected for life, decided that a position so exalted as that of Lord Mayor should not be thrown open to outsiders and made dependent on popular favor. So they fixed things up so that every alderman, if he live long enough, is guaranteed of becoming Lord Mayor when his turn comes.

When Sir Thomas Crosby was elected last year, Sir George Thomas was next, and now it is his turn to take the civic chair.

The system pleases the alderman and does not make much difference to anybody else. The office of Lord Mayor has long since been shorn of its once great power and has become a mere figurehead billet, though it is invested with more fictitious dignity than any other post in England. No more violent contrast is to be found in the world over than that existing between the various duties of the Lord Mayor. Theoretically, at least, the King of Great Britain and Ireland and Emperor of India cannot enter the city of London without his consent.

Yet he spends a considerable part of each day dispensing justice to offenders and other petty offenders who have broken the peace of the square mile of territory over which he rules. In addition to his duties as a magistrate he is required to attend semi-public dinners, balls, receptions and meetings of various kinds during the year he spends in the high office. For these duties he receives a salary of about £10,000 a year, which is equal to that of the President of the United States and twice as much as that of the Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Perhaps it is well that the Lord Mayor nowadays does not possess the supreme power of some of his early predecessors. The Mayor who did fealty to Henry III, for instance, had the temerity to add, "My Lord, so long as you unto us will be a good lord and king, we will be faithful and devout unto you." Then there was the Norman Mayor, who, being irritated by a member of the court who was reading what would now correspond to the riot act, merely ordered the offender to be taken into a neighboring street to be beheaded, and went on reading.

THREATEN TO STOP ATTACK ON PRICES

Commission Merchants at Indianapolis Would Prevent Unloading of Tubers To Be Sold At Cost.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 29.—With commission men threatening to prevent the unloading of potatoes to be sold at cost by the city tomorrow Mayor Shank says it is necessary that the potatoes unloaded outside the city and have the tubers hauled in by wagon, the wagons be decorated and headed by a brass band.

FAIL TO IDENTIFY BODY AT MADISON

Police Cannot Discover Name Or Residence of Man Whose Body Was Found in Yahara River.

CALLS REJECTION OF RECIPROCITY A REBUKE TO TRUSTS

Senator La Follette in Editorial Article Declares Canada Refused to Be Creature of U. S. Trusts.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 29.—Senator La Follette holds Canada's rejection of reciprocity as a rebuke to the American trusts, in his leading editorial in La Follette's magazine this week.

"Canada refused to put her head into the noose held out to her by the special interests," he writes. "The nation named reciprocity" deal. It appears, found its chief support among the agricultural interests of the far northwest. The splendid home market which the American farmer has sacrificed so much to create is looked upon enviously by the wheat-raisers of Canada. But aside from sectional influences, aside from sectional interests, the decisive rejection of the Taft-Laurier agreement means that our neighbors to the northward are not going to place themselves, voluntarily, still more completely under the control of the special interests of the United States.

Senator La Follette said that these combinations are invading Canada and gaining strong hold on Canadian business.

"The Voice of Canada declared, 'We will not of our own free will help the great trusts across the border to a still easier conquest of our country,'" continued the senator. "Perhaps Canada will not accept genuine reciprocity—certainly never a fraud like that just submitted to her—but we have shown our ability to cope successfully with our problem of private monopoly."

EXPRESS MAN HELD ON LARCENY CHARGE

Night Clerk of Canadian Express Company At Hamilton, Ont., Charged With Taking $10,000.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 29.—George Kennan, night clerk of the Canadian Express Company here was arrested today charged with larceny of $10,000 of the company's funds. Earlier in the day he was found bound and gagged on the floor of the office when money had been taken.

PLENTIFUL SUPPLY OF GAME IN STATE

State Game Warden Shouts Declares He Has Never Seen Game So Profuse.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 29.—"I have hunted for thirty years, but never in my experience have I known of so plentiful a supply of game as this season shows," said State Game Warden John A. Shotts today. Small game especially is profuse, he said.

MORGAN AT CAPITAL; CAUSES SPECULATION

"J. Pierpont's" Presence in Washington at Time When Sherman Law is Severely Enforced Causes Discussion.

Washington, Sept. 29.—J. P. Morgan arrived in Washington late last night and declared, emphatically, today that his visit here is prompted by personal business, the nature of which he declined to disclose. Owing to the fact that he has been giving personal attention to the affairs of the United States Steel Corporation during the past week or ten days, his arrival here at a time when the department of justice is more active in its enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law than at any time in the history of the department, gave rise to speculation as to the real nature of the visit.

HIGH PRICES DUE TO CROWDED CITY

Dr. Harvey Wiley in Address To Indiana Medical Society Blames Rush Toward City For Cost of Living.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 29.—The crowded city and the deserted field are responsible for the present high cost of living, according to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief government chemist here today in connection with a meeting of Indiana State Medical society.

RODGERS DELAYED BY SHOWERS TODAY

Akron, O., Sept. 29.—Rain interfered with visitor Rodgers plan to resume his coast to coast flight this morning. He came here today in an automobile from near Kent, where he landed last night. He says he is certain he will finish his flight within the thirty days required time.

HOURLY IS FIXED FOR RAILWAY STRIKERS TO LEAVE LABORS

While Officials Do Not Expect Trouble Hour Has Actually Been Set for First Walkout.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Railroad officials seem confident that because the wage question is not involved there'll be no strike.

Officials of the union, on the other hand, declare the order for a strike was given by the union last night at ten o'clock tomorrow morning to be obeyed, as the men are eager to walk out.

Reports from various points along the Illinois Central and Southern lines show little change, both sides claiming no change.

WHAT EMPLOYEES DEMAND. Recognition of the Federation of Railway Employees. Abolition of the personal record system. Abolition of alleged discrimination against older employees. Abolition of the physical examination rule.

WHAT RAILROADS REFUSE. Harrison lines, through Julius Kruttschnitt, refuse to recognize the federation. Refuse to meet the officials of the federation in Chicago or elsewhere. Illinois Central refuses to change its contracts with its employees by recognizing the federation.

All is Ready. Chicago, Sept. 29.—According to semi-official announcement made here by high officials of the system federation of the Harriman system, the 25,000 employees of the Harriman lines, who are affiliated with the system federation will walk out tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Thirteen thousand members of the federation employed on the Illinois Central, it is further declared, will quit Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Official announcement, it is said, would be sent to the workers today. In addition to the 38,000 men thus ordered to strike, heads of the system federation declare another 12,000 organized men will walk out at the first call, and that approximately 50,000 railroad workers will be out by noon on Monday.

According to those same high officials, strikes will shortly spread to every railroad line in the west and middle west.

Latest Move. It is declared that at a secret meeting in Cleveland, O., the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Order of Railway Conductors, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Switchmen's branch of the American Federation of Labor notified the heads of the system's federation that they will refuse to handle cars from the lines on which the strikes are called, if they are called. If these cars are previously handled by strike breakers. Such a threat if carried into effect probably would shortly involve every railway in the United States in the controversy, as cars from the Harriman lines and the Illinois Central are transferred to every railway system in the country.

Claim a Set. Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 29.—U. S. Marshal J. Johnson today found a box containing one hundred dynamite sticks on the Illinois Central railway tracks at East Junction, New South Memphis. Striking clerks say the caps were placed there by the Illinois Central detectives with a view of getting evidence to help the railroad obtain a permanent injunction against them in the United States district court on Monday. Marshal Johnson will increase his force of deputies by 100. All trains are tied up.

Are Ready. Denver, Colo., Sept. 29.—The Union Pacific officials here are preparing for a strike. A blockade, which has been in progress of construction about the railroad shops here, was practically completed today.

CHARGES AGAINST CLANCY ARE TRUE IS REPORT TODAY

Milwaukee Fire and Police Commission Rumored To Have Settled Case But No Decision is Announced.

Milwaukee, Sept. 29.—Charges against fire chief Clancy were upheld by a majority of the police and fire commission according to rumors following a secret session this morning. No announcement of a decision was made, however. It is rumored, the question of alleged guilt has been settled, but no decision reached as to the punishment to be meted out. Clancy will either be dismissed or suspended for an indefinite time.

BALLINGER ANSWERS FISHER'S ARGUMENTS

FORMER SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR TALKS AT THE PUBLIC LAND CONVENTION.

Takes His Successor To Task For Address the Latter Made Recently.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 29.—Denouncing what he termed a "tendency toward 'bureaucratic government in America,'" and declaring that certain reformers were introducing doctrines which are "the antithesis of reform," Richard A. Ballinger, former secretary of the Interior, addressed the Public Lands Convention today. The took occasion to reply to a recent address at Seattle, Wash., of Secretary of the Interior Walter L. Fisher.

Replies To Fisher. "Is it progress to give unbridled power to bureaucracy?" asked Mr. Ballinger. "There is a set of people in this, as there is in every country, who want the government to do everything for them, because they are either too indolent or incompetent to do for themselves," he continued.

"This is the essence of socialism. Therefore, every tendency toward the alteration of our constitutional system which encourages internalism is destructive of the essential principles of republican institutions. The bureaucratic theory of government, is destructive of our representative system."

Servants of Department. In the formation of the government the Constitution recognized executive departments as essential and Congress from time to time extended their number until there are now nine great executive departments under the federal government. It was found necessary for the proper dispatch of business that the functions of each department should be distributed among bureaus, which required defining their powers and authority. These bureaus were wholly subordinate to the heads of their several departments and their chiefs were generally appointed by the president. In the early history of the government and until recent years bureau chiefs were not advertised; their acts were credited to the "several" departments to which they belonged rather than to the bureau. Subordination, as well as efficiency demanded that they act only through the head of the department to which they were assigned. They were the servants of the departments, as the departments were of the executive. Executive direction in the early days of the government tolerated no semblance of insubordination; it was for the simple reason that the responsibility to the executive for the conduct of the department was lodged in the head of the department, so long as the federal bureau retained its subordinate character it performed a necessary and wholesome function.

Laxity of Discipline. "By the laxity of this discipline," by the encouragement of congress to abolish bureau chiefs and through the feeling for notoriety the bureaucratic idea of government secured a foothold. The bureaucratic idea is founded on the assumption that the bureau head, or chief, is better fitted to handle the affairs of the past than they are themselves. A government becomes bureaucratic when the power of its officers is exerted in ruling rather than in serving the public. The advent of this system says: "The people do not know what is best for them, we will, therefore, have specialists to direct them or to do for them what the specialists think is the right thing." If this is a sound view of executive administration in department, there is no reason why the chief of a bureau should be an American citizen. He might be an Austrian, or of any other nationality, so long as he possesses the special capacity. The representative idea is wholly lost. The sympathetic relation of the official to the public, as its agent and servant, is entirely obliterated and the very elements which encourage and promote arbitrary power and despotic tendencies are here given full sway. Congress gave the means whereby this idea could be carried into effect by the making of rules and regulations having the effect of law, which is tantamount to the substitution of the bureau chief for the lawmaker, and is wholly unrepresentative in principle. The tendency in all bureaucratic administration is internal; that is, for the officer to decide what is best to be done rather than to inquire what an applicant's rights are, and if he has placed himself within the law.

Degeneration of Representatives. "The public is always ready to impute superior ability to executive officers, in whose selection they have no part rather than to their own representatives. While this is paradoxical, the reason for it lies in the fact that they are better acquainted with their representatives than they are with the executive officer. It is no excuse for the public to say that their representatives in congress have degenerated in capacity; if this be true, the people alone are at fault. It may be an easy way to repudiate their own qualified representatives by abandoning representation for bureaucracy, but there seems to be no logical connection between this view and the doctrines of initiative, referendum, recall, and other popularistic panaceas. Perhaps, on the theory that "distance lends enchantment," etc., the bureau head, exploited at government expense, possesses nobler attributes and greater ability than our neighbor who represents us in congress, but of whom we get a closer and more accurate view.

"The extent to which bureaucratic ambition may be carried can perhaps be illustrated best by the scheme, at one time seriously considered by certain bureau heads, to dismember the hospitals.

(Continued On Page 8)

Fall Hat Models

All the dashing, nifty models, embracing many exclusive concepts dear to the heart of the younger fellows. Hats for the older man, too. They're the best thing done in hat designing for many a year. A complete, comprehensive showing awaits you here.

Roswelle's
$3.00

DJLUBY

JANESVILLE CHEMICAL
Steam Dye Works
Lace Curtains and Draperies Cleaned or Dyed.
C. F. BROCKHAUS, Prop

HOME MADE BITTER SWEETS
A fresh lot, with whipped cream centers, lb. .... 30c
RAZOOK
SO. MAIN ST.

Comfortable Hosiery

A man can get a world of comfort and real satisfaction out of the right kind of hosiery. But the trouble is it's so hard to find.
ARMOR PLATE
Answers to a certainty every detail of an ideal sock. It's all in the dye. Not only for men, but hose for ladies and children as well.

HALL & HUEBEL

The
NEW EDISON
RECORDS
Have Arrived
KOEBELIN

Need a Bracer?

Then take the greatest restorative known to science

MERITOL
TONIC
DIGESTIVE

The new Stomach, Blood and Nerve Tonic made by the American Drug and Press Association. It is certain in results. You will be surprised how good it will make you feel.
The Local Member of the Association is

RELIABLE DRUG
Co.

OLD SOLDIER PASSED AWAY THIS MORNING

Andrew C. Bearup Passes Away at the Home of His Sister-in-law.

After an lingering illness of several months' duration, Mr. Andrew C. Bearup passed away peacefully this morning at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Lydia Hanous, residing at 555 South Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bearup came to Janesville last April with the hope of benefiting his health, but he steadily grew worse until the end came.

Mr. Bearup was born in New York state and served during the civil war in the army of the Potomac. After the war he came to Wisconsin and lived for a number of years at Watertown and Eau Claire, later moving to Charles City, Ia., and then to Escanaba, Mich.

He was employed by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway as station agent at North Chicago for some years and later worked for the Mahan Advertising company of Chicago.

He leaves a wife, a daughter, a son having died in childhood.

The funeral services will be held at the residence of Mrs. Lydia Hanous on South Main street on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

MEMBERS ELECTED TO LAUREAN SOCIETY

Seven Chosen From Large Number To Be Initiated Next Month.—Two More Pledged Last Year.

After the classes had been dismissed at the high school yesterday the Laurean Literary Society held a meeting for the purpose of deciding on seven of the large number of candidates who should be chosen for membership in the organization. Inasmuch as the constitution limits the number of members to twenty-five, very often several of those seeking to join the society must be content with having their names placed on the books so that they will have their chance to be enrolled next year or when the present number is diminished and a vacancy left.

Members of the society have been discussing the long list of names, which were handed in as applicants for membership, for several weeks and it was not until last night that the final vote was taken to determine who the lucky ones should be.

Those who were chosen and who are now ready to undergo their initiation are Joanna Hayes, Francis Jackson, Ruth Norling, Miriam Allen, Frances Elford, Ruth Soultman and Florence Nazum were accepted with the other new members.

Margaret Birmingham, Lulu Williams and Jessica George were chosen from the many applicants to be eligible for membership whenever a vacancy should make their addition to the society a possibility.

Following the business meeting the regular program was given and the new members were given an opportunity to enjoy the first meeting at which they could feel themselves real members. After the usual opening exercises Margaret Doty started the program of extemporaneous talks by "My Trip to the East." Katherine Carl followed with a talk on "Camping at Green Lake." Sarah Garbutt next spoke on "A Week Spent Up the River" and Ruth Humphrey's story of "What Our Alumni Are Doing" ended the program amid the hearty applause of those present.

The meeting broke up to regret of all and the new members are looking forward to the time when they will be permitted to take part in the work of the organization themselves.

FURTHER CHANGES IN GINSENG FARM

Much Adversely Clinton Ginseng Garden Again Figures in Sale.

Other Clinton News.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Clinton, Sept. 29.—White and Monro yesterday morning sold the Woodward Ginseng garden, which they recently bought of Edw. P. Seaman, to Carl Reimer, who will continue the garden in its present location, having purchased the growing crop and the covering and not the ground.

Clinton Locals.
Anell Merritt Van Volzer will go to Lake Geneva-Bathurst to attend a birthday party for his brother-in-law.

Miss Angeline Douglas was called to Heloit last evening on account of the illness of her uncle.

Attorney E. B. Hawke yesterday morning purchased the home of Ed. Kiewino formerly known as the George Rogers house, at the top of the hill on Main street.

Mrs. J. C. Church went to Heloit last evening to visit relatives before returning to her home in Chicago.

Miss Addie J. Smith is having a cement walk laid on the cross street side of her property.

Mrs. Robert Wheeler went to Heloit last evening to visit relatives and friends before returning to her home in Chicago.

Mrs. Rufus E. Green and son, Robert of Walworth, are visiting Mrs. Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Haddock.

Miss Mayma Fredendall of Janesville is visiting her mother here for a few days.

Lecture Course.
On account of not being able to secure a satisfactory date for one of the Lyceum attractions bought for this winter's course the executive committee canceled the contract on that number and secured another and much better attraction, selling for $50.00 more than the one originally contracted for and making it the most expensive four people company ever brought by Clinton, excepting the Grand Opera Company, which was here last winter. The course as dates are now complete and are as follows:

Captain Richard Pearson Hobson Thursday evening, Nov. 9.
The Four Artists Company, Friday evening, December 1st.
The Chicago Glee Club, Friday evening, Jan. 12.
Miss Sarah Mildred Willmer Monday evening, February 5th.

LINK AND PIN.

Chicago & Northwestern.

FOUR ENGINES LEFT SHOPS THIS MONTH

Northwestern Shops Have Been Kept Busy This Month With Extensive Repair Work.

The men in the Milwaukee shops have been quite rushed this month, and as a result of their labors, four engines have left the shop after going through the process of the last overhaul. Yesterday the last engine to leave, No. 306, was tried out and found satisfactory. The other engines repaired and repainted are: Nos. 1400, 573 and 155.

Four Extras Out.
This morning, owing to a rush in the freight department, four extras were ordered out. Engine No. 1413, with Engineer Watson and Fireman Kuhlman in charge went to Clyman; No. 1481 with Engineer Findlay and Fireman Krohn to Chicago; No. 489 with Engineer Bodah and Fireman Thompson to Clyman, and No. 237 with Engineer Hauke and Fireman Hill were sent out on the Belvidere division.

Fireman Kohlrow is on 534 instead of J. Woodling who is on 582, 589.

Fireman James Shaven is on switch engine duty this morning and is relieving Fireman L. L. Smith who is in Chicago taking the time card examination.

Bert Donnet, stationary engineer, is in St. Atkinson today transacting company business.

Engine No. 154 was on the Watertown division this morning instead of 159.

Engine No. 552 of the Madison Division was called to Baraboo yesterday and will be held there in the shops for work. Engine No. 307 will be used here in its place until further notice.

E. M. Sullivan, assistant engine inspector, is laid up again at his home with his pet affliction, lumbago.

Fireman Ashley is on the Sunset Limited today.

Carmen Arthur Connors is off duty today.

Conductor Anderson returned to his duties this morning.

Conductor McCaffrey is off duty today and brakeman Goodman is taking his place.

Conductor Perry is off duty for several days and is being relieved by Conductor McCarthy.

Brakeman Joyce is on duty this morning, taking W. Doolin's place, who is enjoying a short lay-off.

Engineer Dudley and Fireman Walters are off duty today and Engineers Woodling and Granton are taking their places.

C. M. & St. Paul.
Station Agent Fred Zimmerman is quite sick at his home with an attack of rheumatism.

James Fox, engineer, who has been in charge of all the engines which were at work on the clearing up of the wreck on the Mineral Point Division near Monroe, returned to his home here last night.

Thomas Fox, engineer on run 7 and 8, is taking his monthly ten-day lay-off and is relieved by Engineer Harrison.

WILL EXPLAIN WORK OF MISSION BOARD

Dr. David Beaton Will Discuss Accomplishments of Foreign Mission Board Which Meets in Milwaukee Soon.

At the Sunday morning services of the Congregational church, Dr. David Beaton will discuss the work of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, a national organization which will meet in convention at Milwaukee, October 18-19.

The organization, which is originally denominational, is at present a Congregational institution, but is nevertheless broad in its field of action, its aims and methods. The work accomplished through this agency has affected nearly every place in the foreign field and the meeting of such an important mission society in this state is an event of interest to all interested in the mission movement. Senator J. M. Whitcomb is one of the corporate commissioners for this state and it is planned to have a large attendance from the local church at the coming conference.

RESERVE SPACE FOR INDUSTRIAL SHOWS

Local Manufacturers Enthusiastic Over the Proposed Exhibit at the Rink.

Secretary Lane of the Industrial and Commercial club has already received many reservations for space at the coming Industrial and Commercial club exhibit of Janesville made goods. It was originally thought to hold the exhibit but three days but it is certain now that if suitable arrangements can be made it will continue through the whole week. Many plans for amusement of the visitors are being considered, moving pictures, band concerts, singing and refreshment booths are being discussed. One electrical firm in Cleveland has already written Mr. Lane relative to placing signs for advertising purposes and several outside factories that have large sales in the city have asked for space on the floor for their exhibits. In speaking of the affair Mr. Lane said today: "I think it is going to be a big thing. The local manufacturers, including the tailors, want to take part and before we get through I am sure that every space is going to be taken and well filled with interesting exhibits. I can not give the exact date yet owing to the fact we have no venue for the rink but think it will be in November."

POLITICAL FIGHT ON IN NEW MEXICO

Initial Political Fight in State of New Mexico Began At Las Vegas At Republican Convention.

Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 29.—The initial battle for control of the political fortunes of the new state of New Mexico commenced today at Las Vegas, when the first republican state convention convened to nominate a complete state legislative and congressional ticket. The first democratic state convention will be held here on October 3.

Then will open the most strenuous political fight in the history of New Mexico when every nerve will be strained by the contestants to win the contest upon which depends the selection of the first two United States senators from the new state. It is estimated by both democrats and republicans that the pivot on which the senatorial wheel of fortune turns is the governorship and both parties are endeavoring to nominate strong candidates for the head of the ticket.

The principal candidates for Governor are H. O. Burham, chairman of the Territorial committee, Solomon Luna, and Miguel Olvera, for three years governor of the territory. Burham or Luna is believed to have the best chance for nomination.

At the first state election, New Mexico will choose two congressmen and they will serve only one year each. At the general election in 1912, the state will only elect one congressman. For this reason the place is regarded by many as a thankless and the candidates are not numerous. The principal aspirants were George Curry, former territorial governor, rough rider and one time chief of police of Manila; and Octaviano O. Larrazolo, a Las Vegas, the "silver tongue" orator of New Mexico, erstwhile ardent democrat, but recently turned republican.

There are many republican candidates for the two United States Senators, but the four leading aspirants are Governor William N. Allen, William H. Andrew, of Albuquerque, present delegate in congress; A. D. Hall, a very wealthy man, of Three Rivers and Thomas Catron, former delegate to congress and former law partner of Steven B. Elkins.

How quickly the details attending the territorial admission as a state will be gone through is problematical, but it is hoped that President Taft will issue his proclamation declaring New Mexico a state about December 15.

HAVE NOT DRAWN UP DECISION ON CASE

Wisconsin Tax Commission Will Not Make Decision of Reassessment For Janesville For Several Days.

That a decision from the Wisconsin tax commission on the matter of ordering a reassessment for the city of Janesville, will not be given for several days and perhaps a longer time, was the announcement today of H. L. Maxfield, who as a taxpayer of the city made the petition for the hearing which was held in this city on Tuesday, September 12. Mr. Maxfield talked with Mr. Haugen, a member of the commission at Madison, over the long distance telephone today and Mr. Haugen stated that the commission would make no decision today and would take several days more to consider certain portions of the testimony connected with the hearing of the proposition for reassessment.

BROTHERS IN LAWSUIT IN MUNICIPAL COURT TODAY

David Brown of Koshkonong Suing Dr. R. L. Brown for Account Which Dr. R. L. Brown is Alleged to Owe Him.

David Brown of Koshkonong, formerly of this city, is the plaintiff and Dr. R. L. Brown of this city the defendant in the trial of a civil case in municipal court today. The two men are brothers. An account, alleged to have been outstanding since the plaintiff was in the flour and feed business in this city. The testimony of plaintiff and defendant was not completed until late this afternoon and the case was taken under advisement by the court.

MADISON BOY FINED FOR TAKING JOY RIDE WITH HIS UNCLE'S AUTOMOBILE

With Companions Paid Janesville a Visit Recently—First Conviction Under New Law.

According to the Madison Journal Mark Regan, 18 years old, in municipal court yesterday afternoon paid a fine of $50 and costs for operating an automobile owned by his uncle, John T. Blake, cement contractor, without the consent of the owner. This is the first conviction under the new automobile law passed by the legislature of 1909.

The four other boys who were with Regan in a "joy ride" to Janesville were found not guilty. On the return trip the car was badly damaged. John T. Blake, the uncle mentioned, is well known in Janesville, having done considerable street construction work here in times past.

OBITUARY.

Pope.

The funeral of the late William J. F. Pope, who died Wednesday afternoon, will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the home, 602 South River St., and at St. Paul's German Lutheran church at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. J. J. Koerner will officiate.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting for men will open on next Sunday, Oct. 1st, at 3 p. m., in the Y. M. C. A. building. The committee in charge are now planning an interesting program for the first meeting. A cordial welcome is extended to all men in Janesville to plan for this hour from 3 to 4 Sunday. Enjoy the hour with any friends they choose to bring.

COUNTLESS NUMBERS WORN AND HALF SICK

United States Contains Many Men and Women With No Energy and Little Vitality.

Every large city in the United States contains countless numbers of worn out, half sick men and women with poor appetites and bad digestion. They have no energy, little vitality and are dispondent and nervous.

They have cold feet, sallow complexion and they say they are run down.

The right name for this trouble is nervous debility and it is produced by the strain and hustle and worry of modern life.

Many think indigestion causes the half bad feeling which afflicts them and they take "something to digest their food."

This is all wrong. It may afford temporary relief but the cause of their stomach trouble is the nervous, debilitated condition of the entire system and this must be overcome before the stomach will perform its functions properly.

Nervous debility is a modern ailment caused by city life. There is a modern tonic that overcomes this trouble like magic. It is called Tona Vita.

If you are afflicted with nervous debility don't wait another day feeling miserable. Stop dosing your stomach. Get this great tonic and you will be astonished how quickly your strength and ambition will return and how your stomach trouble will disappear.

Tona Vita is sold on trial and must bring back your health or the price is refunded.

Lee's Rhubarb Laxative is the assistant remedy to Tona Vita and is used in cases of chronic constipation. There is nothing equal to rhubarb as a natural harmless laxative. Rhubarb or drugs strain the intestines and leave them weak. Rhubarb acts as a tonic and gives them strength.

Tona Vita and Lee's Rhubarb Laxative are sold in Janesville by the Smith Pharmacy. They are splendid modern medicines.

RECALLS-NOTED EVENT IN HISTORY OF LAST CENTURY

Thirty Years Ago September 19th President Garfield Died From Wounds Inflicted by Assassins.

Thirty years ago September 19th, President James A. Garfield died from wounds inflicted by an assassin and the whole nation was plunged into grief. A Washington paper in recalling the sad date tells an interesting bit of history in which Warren S. Young, chief executive clerk at the White House and an uncle of Dr. V. H. Judd of this city played a part.

making the news of the president's death public. Mr. Young is still at the White House which makes the tale doubly interesting. Just after President Garfield died, Mr. Young was hurrying out of the president's room with an errand when accosted by a newspaper correspondent who asked him a question. With his mind full of the death of the nation's chief executive, he replied, "It is all over." Immediately the newspaper men rushed to the telegraph offices to wire the news to the waiting world and when the doctors had prepared the official statement of the death, it was already known in all the news centers of the United States. Mr. Young has long been a trusted employee of the government stationed at the White House and his stories, written in letters to Dr. Judd, prove most interesting reading.

Knew What She Wanted.

Frances had been studying the Wagner motifs with her mother, and her powers of appreciation exceeded her powers of expression. One day she placed the Wagner book in position and implored mamma: "Dearest, let's go to the piano and have the rum-bles."

Would Spell Them a White. Little Edna, after listening to her mother and a caller talking incessantly for almost an hour, said: "Why don't you women rest and let me talk awhile?"

STOP AND SEE
Our
Bargain Counters
Shoes at
$1.98 and $2.48

We will have great bargains in high cuts this fall. Boys' from $2.25 to $2.95. Men's from $2.95 to $6.00. We have an imported Russian tan, water proof, high cut, which can't be beat for wear and price. Stop and see them before you buy any other.

P. H. LUCHT
124 Corn Exchange.

Beef Pot Roast, lb. .... 10c
Plate Beef, lb. .... 05c
Bacon, lb. .... 15c
Spring Chickens, lb. .... 10c
Summer Sausage, lb. .... 18c

KRONITZ
BROS.
BOTH PHONES

SILVER

What we have been striving for all these years in our business, is to carry such a line of silverware that we shall have established a confidence in our stock among the people that will rightfully make our store, the silverware headquarters. Come in and look over the many tasty things in ornament and table use.

OLIN & OLSON, Jewelers

SHOWER GIVEN FOR FLORENCE BAGLEY

Former Janesville Young Lady To Be Wedded Next Wednesday To Frank Miller of Juda.

Miss Florence Bagley of Juda, was the guest of honor last evening at a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bagley. About fifty young lady friends were present and numerous pretty and valuable gifts were bestowed on Miss Bagley.

Bagley who is to become the bride of Frank Miller of Juda on Wednesday, October 4. Miss Bagley formerly resided with her parents in this city. She attended the Janesville high school and has a host of friends here. The prospective groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller of Juda. He has built a bungalow and fitted it up beautifully for his bride.

Auto Party: H. C. Adams, H. L. Nubbaum, William Brown of Chicago, A. C. Carlin, C. Carlin and W. Gontak. Mr. Adams passed through here in an automobile yesterday, stopping at the Myers hotel.

FREE SOUVENIR FREE SAUCE DISH,

Green decoration, given with your purchase in addition to usual checks.

We will give this same decoration in Cups and Saucers, Plates, Oatmeal Bowls and Sauce Dishes until our customers obtain a set of each.

Our Camel Coffee is a popular blend and is sold in sealed sanitary packages. Price 30c, 35c and 40c per pound. Other Coffee at 20c, 25c and 28c per pound.

CANE SUGAR
17 Lbs. for $1.00

With a $1.00 purchase of any other goods in the store. Or 14 pounds of Cane Sugar for $1.00 with no other consideration.

WE DELIVER

18 South Main Street, Janesville, Wis.

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Well Dressed Women Wear the Modart

"Because it is the only corset which, owing to its improved Principle of Front Lacing, brings out every improvable quality of their figure."

MODART CORSETS
"THE IMPROVED FRONT LACED"

For the latest thing in distinctive corsetry come in and see the new Modart models—just arrived for the coming season—at our store.

Let the Perfect Fit of the Modart Bring Out Every Ideal Line of Your Figure

AND THIS, GOOD PEOPLE, IS DR. BENJIE'S FAMOUS COOLING PROCESS! BY HARRY DALLY

SPORTS

Yesterday's Games

Standing of the Clubs.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Clubs	W. L. P. C.
New York	30 21 49 10 111
Chicago	27 24 51 10 104
Pittsburgh	22 25 47 10 103
Philadelphia	22 25 47 10 103
St. Louis	22 25 47 10 103
Cincinnati	22 25 47 10 103
Boston	22 25 47 10 103
Brooklyn	22 25 47 10 103
Cleveland	22 25 47 10 103
Washington	22 25 47 10 103
San Francisco	22 25 47 10 103
San Diego	22 25 47 10 103
Los Angeles	22 25 47 10 103
Portland	22 25 47 10 103
Seattle	22 25 47 10 103
Portland	22 25 47 10 103
Seattle	22 25 47 10 103

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Clubs	W. L. P. C.
New York	30 21 49 10 111
Chicago	27 24 51 10 104
Pittsburgh	22 25 47 10 103
Philadelphia	22 25 47 10 103
St. Louis	22 25 47 10 103
Cincinnati	22 25 47 10 103
Boston	22 25 47 10 103
Brooklyn	22 25 47 10 103
Cleveland	22 25 47 10 103
Washington	22 25 47 10 103
San Francisco	22 25 47 10 103
San Diego	22 25 47 10 103
Los Angeles	22 25 47 10 103
Portland	22 25 47 10 103
Seattle	22 25 47 10 103
Portland	22 25 47 10 103
Seattle	22 25 47 10 103

Scores of Thursday's Games.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Chicago, 2; New York, 1.
St. Louis, 4; Brooklyn, 2.
Pittsburgh, 9; Philadelphia, 4.
Cincinnati-Boston, no game; rain.
AMERICAN LEAGUE
St. Louis, 4; Chicago, 2.
Washington, 2; Detroit, 1.
Philadelphia, 9; Cleveland, 3.
New York, 10; St. Louis, 12.
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Kansas City, 6; Milwaukee, 5 (first game); Kansas City, 6; Milwaukee, 2 (second game).
Toledo, 4; Indianapolis, 1.
Columbus, 3; Louisville, 1.
Minneapolis-St. Paul, no game; rain.

TO HOLD FIELD DAY IN WHITE SOX PARK

Minor League Stars To Compete With "Major" in Ball Throwing and Base-running Tomorrow Night

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 20.—Minor league stars from far and near are trooping into town to contest in the Comiskey field day events scheduled to take place tomorrow night at the American league park. This tournament will be the first big affair of its kind Chicago has witnessed in years and the fans are expected to turn out in force to see the big and little players compete in ball throwing and base running stunts. The Chicago and New York National league teams and the Chicago American league team will be represented in the competitions, though the majority of the participants will represent the minor leagues, principally those of the middle West.

LAUNCH OWNERS ENJOY LAST DAYS OF SEASON

Boating Becoming More Popular Every Year and Many People Have Cottages—Boating Factory Being Erected.

Launch owners are taking advantage of the fine weather lately to the use of their boats as much as possible before the cold season sets in. There are at present about seventy launches on the river and their owners, realizing that this is the best time of the year on the river, do not plan to take them out of the river at least until the first ice appears. Very few people are staying in their cottages at this time but a great many are still spending evenings and even staying over night up the river.

During the past year a number of new cottages have been erected and several lots along the river banks have either been bought or rented for the purpose of building cottages. Several parties have spent the entire summer campaign on the banks of Rock River and week-end camping parties were very popular. Among the new buildings to be erected this year was a bottling factory for the Burr Spring water which is in the course of completion on a lot south of the springs. The water will be shipped all over the country from here and will be bottled directly from the spring.

Rock river has been at its usual height for this time of the year, only once during several weeks overflowing the dam.

BIG TEAMS TO OPEN SEASON TOMORROW

Football Eleven of Big Eastern Colleges Will Play Their First Games Tomorrow

New York, Sept. 20.—Tomorrow will mark the opening of the football season for the big colleges in the East, and an excellent array of games is on the calendar for the critics of the sport to witness and ponder over. Every one of the big four will be seen on the gridiron for the first time this year. Yale will play its initial game with Holy Cross at New Haven, Harvard will meet Bates at Cambridge, Princeton will play Stevens at home, and Pennsylvania will line up against Gettysburg on Franklin field. Brown will also play its first game, with New Hampshire State at Providence. Cornell and Carleton Indiana, both of whom have already started their schedule, will be seen again, the Indiana players meeting Colgate and the Indiana playing Dickinson.

CALESTHENICS TO BE INSTALLED IN SCHOOLS

Teachers Meet and Plan Instruction in Physical Training—Ten Minutes Drill Twice A Day.

Wednesday afternoon Mr. Bull met with the teachers of the first four grades in the public schools and made arrangements for the installation of physical training for the pupils in accordance with new law. One week from next Monday the scholars in these grades will begin their drill in calisthenics which will occupy ten minutes every morning and afternoon. The sessions will be divided into three divisions separated respectively by the exercises and the recess which will be shortened from fifteen to ten minutes. Miss Taylor will give the teachers a regular course of instruction in the drill of the children and to enable her to cover the ground thoroughly only half of the grades will be taken at one time. The value of setting up for the people who are continuously using their brains to the neglect of their bodies, as well as to the children is becoming more widely recognized all the time and the new law requiring it in the schools is a very wise thing and is receiving the commendation of teachers and educators throughout the State.

PROMISING FOOTBALL MAN AT MADISON HAS BROKEN LEG

[BY UNITED PRESS.] Madison, Sept. 20.—Walter Hoy, a promising football player of Chicago, who has been making a strong bid for one of the end positions on the varsity squad last night broke his leg and will be out of the game for the rest of the season.

GLOOMY PROSPECTS FOR FOOTBALL TEAM

Coach McMurray in Mass Meeting Today Deplored Lagging Interest—Might Postpone Stoughton Game.

Coach McMurray announced this noon at a mass meeting of the boys of the junior and senior classes of the high school, that unless more candidates came out who could qualify and would be on hand to play Stoughton this coming Saturday, the game would have to be cancelled. This announcement is the result of a lagging spirit among the candidates and also a failure on their part to keep up in their class work. Out of the entire first and second teams only ten men were found this morning who could qualify to play Saturday. This means that inexperienced men will be forced to play. At the mass meeting four or five promised to play so that it is hoped by the students that Saturday's game will not be called off. However, Janesville's outlook is not what it was at the first call for practice. Capt. Korst will be unable to play owing to the opposition of his parents, and Patter, an old player, is also shut out of the game.

The probable line-up will be as follows: Mason, c; Davidson, rt; Sherman, rg; Bentley, re; Wilkinson, lc; Cannon, lk; Waterson, lo; Kelly, qb; Connell, rh; Edler, lb; Ryan, fb.

SEEK BOYS WHO RAN AWAY FROM HOME LAST NIGHT

Chief of Police Asked to Look for and Detain Three Youths From Solon Mills, Who Started for Montana.

Chief of Police George Appleby this morning received from Nicholas, Inspector of the Chicago detective bureau, a telegram, sent last night, asking the local chief to look for and detain three runaway boys who had started for Montana. The runaways are Charles Amos, John and Charles Wolke of Solon Mills, Ill., all about fourteen years of age. They left their homes last night. Up until late this afternoon the boys had not been found on any trains passing through this city. The telegram was sent late last night and not delivered until this morning so that the youths may have had a chance to pass through here without being stopped.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted us at the death of our daughter and sister and for the beautiful floral offerings.

MRS. MESSINGER,
MR. & MRS. A. H. BATH,
MR. & MRS. PAUL BATH.

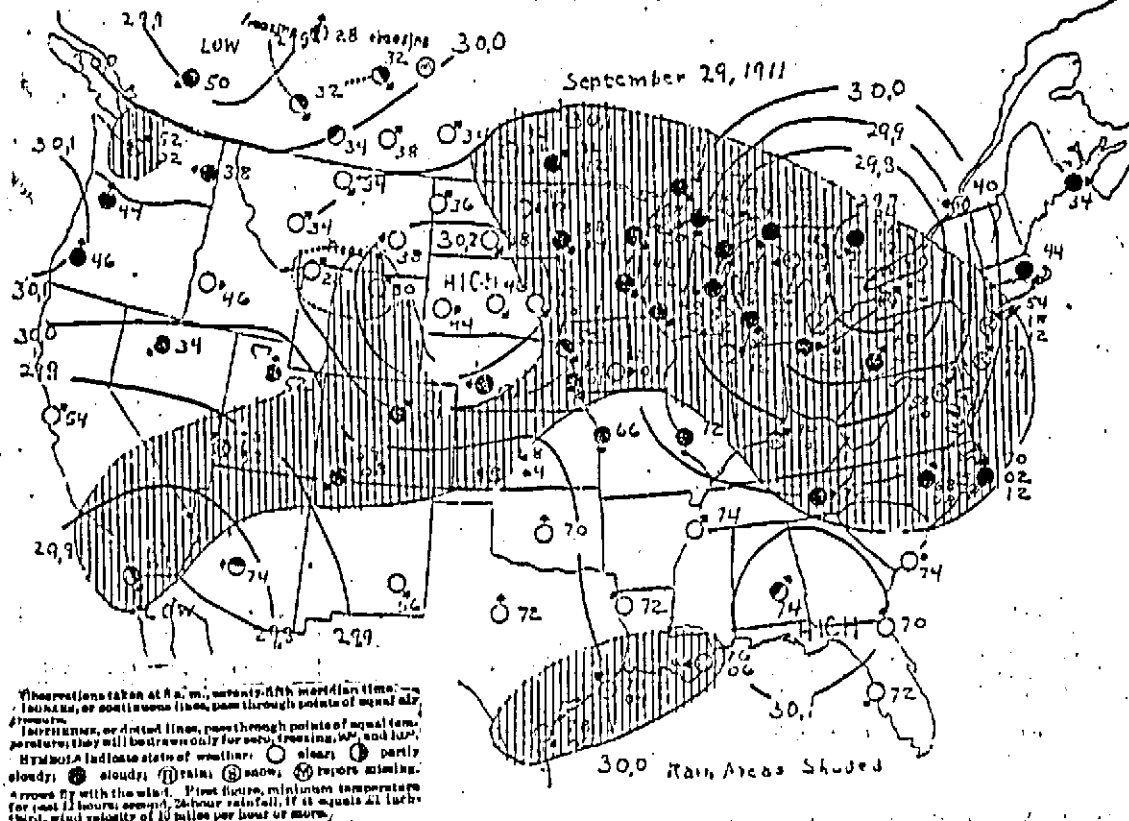

SOME ADVICE ON THE SIDE.

Head coach of Yale, Walter Camp, conferring with Captain Howe, possibly over the new play which Tom Cheylin traveled 3,000 miles to give to his Alma Mater. Yale's line-up for 1911 season looks particularly strong.

U. S. Department of Agriculture. WEATHER BUREAU

WILLIS L. MOORE, Chief.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The atmospheric disturbances that was on the Rocky Mountain Slope yesterday has advanced rapidly across the Plains and the north Central states to the lower Lake Region. It was attended by rainfall pretty generally throughout the northern states. Rainfalls of more than one inch fell at Green Bay and St. Paul. The weather continues fair and warm in the South, with the exception of light showers along the west Gulf coast. Rainfall is reported at stations in the Southwest from western Kansas through Colorado and Utah to southern California. It is fair, with continued cool weather in the northern Rockies. Freezing temperatures prevail in northern Wyoming and in Alberta. In this vicinity it will be fair tonight and Saturday. It will be cooler tonight, with a temperature of 40 to 45 degrees in the early morning, when frost will probably form in low places.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Deed Filed Today: The warranty deed indicating the transfer of the Kenilworth block on South Main St., owned by the Eldredge estate, William M. Eldredge and wife and Mrs. Mary A. H. Eldredge, to Daniel Ryan, was filed in the office of the registrar of deeds today. The consideration named is $11,800.

Dooley Freed: "Jack" Dooley was brought into court yesterday afternoon at three o'clock for trial on the charge of drunkenness and pleaded guilty. Sentence was suspended, however, to allow him to leave town, as he promised to stay out of the city and behave himself.

TRAINING SCHOOL'S SHARE APPORTIONED

City's Part in Heating and Janitor Expense of Jefferson School Settled At Meeting Held This Morning.

Agreement as to the amount to be paid by the county for the training school's share for the heating and janitor expenses of the Jefferson school was made this morning at a joint meeting of the training school board and a special committee, appointed by the school board, held at the office of County Superintendent O. D. Anttadell at 10:30 o'clock. It was decided to draw up a contract between the training and city school boards whereby the training school is to pay $250 from money already appropriated for heating and $35 a month for janitor service. The janitor will be paid the additional wage by the city and can use it if he desires for engaging help. Those on the committee which appeared for the city were S. M. Smith, Arthur Fisher, and J. M. Thayer. School Clerk S. C. Burnham was also present. County Superintendent O. D. Anttadell, and C. W. Moore represented the training school board, Carlo A. Cleveland, the third member, was not able to come.

Both Are Needed. The practical man and the visionary man will never agree with each other, and yet each is needed to make the world move.—Dallas News.

Simpson's GARMENT STORE

Announce a New Arrival of Fall Goods --

Tomorrow morning we will display a brand new lot of Fall Coats and Dresses. You've not seen them before and you'll find them a very interesting lot. Many new ideas among them.

Simpson's GARMENT STORE

THIS BASE BURNER IS BUILT AS TIGHTLY AND COMPACTLY AS YOUR WATCH

That is why it requires but three tons of coal a winter, where other base burners use from five to seven tons. It is the Favorite Burner—the best Base Burner made.

The castings in this stove that form the doors, registers and mica frames are milled and planed until they fit into their places accurately and tightly.

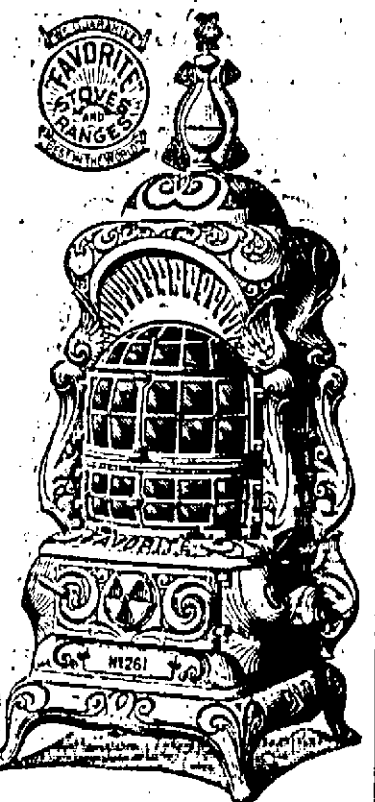

The Favorite Base Burner is the only stove that can be made in this way, for special machinery, which only the Favorite Makers use, is necessary to mill and plane the parts to accuracy.

The Favorite is the only Base Burner which will maintain an even temperature all night and be burning as brightly in the morning as when you went to bed.

It is the only Base Burner that experience has shown will last a life-time and be as powerful and economical a heating stove at the end as it was at the beginning.

If you are trying to keep down the cost of living, start with your coal bill. Use a Favorite and cut that in two. You will have a warmer home, a finer looking stove, a more contented family and a reduced expense account.

SHELDON HARDWARE CO.

Like Magic

My Dental services act like magic. I instantly relieve a throbbing toothache and cause you to breathe a breath of relief, possibly the first in many days of suffering.

You ought to see people shake my hand in gratitude and thankfulness as they go away from my office in perfect comfort.

Dr. F. T. Richards

Office over Hall & Ravies.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

The First National Bank

Capital ..... $125,000
Surplus and Profits $140,000
COMMERCIAL AND PRIVATE CHECKING AC.
COUNTS INVITED.

We have installed seventy additional high-class safe deposit boxes which we will rent at reasonable rates.

Choice Eating Apples Lb. 3c

Citron, each ..... 10c
Large Peppers, 2 for ..... 5c
Cauliflower, head ..... 10c
Egg Plant, each ..... 10c
Cooking Onions, lb. .... 3c
Fine Table Peaches, doz. 20c
Pears, dozen ..... 30c
Grapes, basket ..... 17c
Tokay Grapes, lb. .... 7c
Cranberries, lb. .... 12c

MRS. L. L. LESLIE

RIVERVIEW PARK GROCERY
Both Phones

Spring Chickens Per Pound 18c

Nice, meaty Sparrows, per lb. .... 12½c
Sweet Pickled Rumps of Corn Beef, per pound ..... 12½c
Prime Rib Roasts of Beef, per pound ..... 12½c
2 lbs. Fresh Cut Hamburger 25c
Leg o' Lamb, per pound ..... 20c
Leg o' Mutton, per pound ..... 16c
Choice Roasts of Veal, per pound ..... 15c and 18c
Veal Stew, per pound ..... 12½c
Brisket Bacon, per pound ..... 15c
Salt Pork, per pound ..... 12½c
Home Made Pork Sausage, per pound ..... 15c

SPECIAL

Canning Pears Per Bushel 85c

Large Fancy Eating Apples and Cooking Apples, per peck 30c
Open Baskets of Peaches ..... 20c
Concord Grapes and Eating Pears.
Wild Crabapples, per peck 15c
Tomatoes, per bushel ..... 50c
Cranberries, per pound ..... 10c
6 pounds Sweet Potatoes ..... 25c
We have the Mason quart fruit jars.
Green Peppers, per dozen ..... 10c
Cauliflower, each ..... 10c and 15c
3 Cucumbers ..... 5c
3 pounds Pickling Onions ..... 25c
Hubbard Squash, each ..... 10c and 15c
Beets, Carrots, Turnips and Rutabagas.
Pretzels, per pound ..... 8c
Bulk Peanut Butter, per pound ..... 15c
McLaren's Peanut Butter, per glass ..... 10c, 15c, and 25c
3 Unseeded Biscuit ..... 10c
Heinz' Malt Vinegar, per bottle ..... 30c
Sugarlasses, per package ..... 10c

ROESLING BROS.

Groceries and Meats
6 Phones, all 128

REGULAR TERM OF COUNTY COURT OCT. 3

Rock County Court Will Open With Forty-Five Cases on the Calendar.

Below is given the calendar of cases to be heard in the regular term of the Rock County Court to be held October 3rd. Forty-five cases are given of which six are proof of will; two are petitions for administration; twenty-five are hearings of claims and eleven are accounts.

Proof of Will.
William D. Hubbard, Watson L. Cowles, Ellen Hunlon, Mary Rock, Clara B. Colley, Joseph Spence.
Petition for Administration.
Isaac Huckeridge, John Wiestan, Rose M. Hubbard.

Claims.
Alexander Hay, Heinrich Effendahl, Elizabeth Van Patten, William Sumner, Ferdinand Schwank, Sarah L. Stover, G. T. Palmerton, Isiah Beck, S. Proctor, B. M. Lin, Frank Itzig, Thomas Flarity, Adeline D. Truman, Andrew Anderson, Margaret Howard, William H. Meyer, Charles A. Hutchins, John Curtis, Torquay Heyward, George Sykes, Bridget Coen, Olivia P. White.

Accounts.
John Duthie, John Watson, John P. Thompson, James Kennett, David Coughlin, Ellen M. Serich, Edmund A. Thompson, W. H. Carpenter, Victor H. Gorder, Edward H. Smith, (Inc.), Lemuel Paul.

BRIEF PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Deards of Washington, D. C., who have been visiting in the city, departed for their home today.

Mrs. Harry Harrison of Appleton is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Doty.

County Superintendent O. D. Antle was in Milton yesterday.

Mrs. W. F. Hayes and daughter, Miss Elva Hayes, are visiting in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward have returned to their home in Fond du Lac after a visit in the city.

Miss Marcela Rogan will entertain tomorrow evening at her home on East street in honor of Miss Mildred Doty, who leaves next week for Chicago to attend a school of acting.

Mayor David Zull of Whitewater was in the city yesterday.

Miss Mabel Charlton has returned from a visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClure of Minneapolis are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King.

The Ladies' Afternoon Whist club met this afternoon with Mrs. Anna Baker, St. Lawrence avenue.

T. D. Woolsey of Beloit was in the city on local business yesterday.

Miss D. Bonstead of Chicago is the guest of local relatives.

Miss Florence McArthur of Beloit was the guest of Mrs. John Nichols on South Third street yesterday.

Mrs. Ernest Newell and son, Chas., who have been the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Randall, have returned to their home in DeForest, Wis.

Miss Susan Jeffrie and Miss Agnes Grubel are visiting in Chicago.

Miss Louise Stillman is visiting in Edgerton.

Mrs. W. H. Cornett has returned from a trip to Chicago.

P. W. Coon of Edgerton was in the city on business yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller have returned from Indiana where they were called by the death of Mr. Miller's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sykes spent Thursday with friends in Edgerton.

Attorney T. D. Woolsey of Beloit, was a business visitor at the court house this morning.

Canning Pears

Fancy Large Canning Pears To Clean Up We Have Made This Low Price Of Only 85c.

14 lbs. Best Granulated Sugar $1.00.

Golden Palace Flour $1.40.

1 LB. WALTER BAKER'S CHOCOLATE 28c LB.

1 LB. CAN CALUMET BAKING POWDER 25c.

1 BU. POTATOES, 60 LBS. 65c BU.

LARGE ONIONS 2½c LB.

CARROTS 2c LB.

CRANBERRIES 12½c LB.

NAVY BEANS 6c LB.

FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS 10c LB.

CONCORD GRAPES 17c BASKET.

CAL. ORANGES 40c DOZ.

LARGE CABBAGE 5c HEAD; 50c DOZEN.

BERMUDA ONIONS 7c LB.

PICNIC HAM 10c LB.

ORFORD CREAMERY BUTTER IS THE BEST BUTTER MADE, PUT UP IN ONE POUND PRINTS. IT IS THE BEST BUTTER SOLD IN CITY AND WE ONLY ASK 30c LB.

10-LB. SK. GRAHAM FLOUR 30c.

10-LB. SK. CORN MEAL 20c.

3 PKG. MACARONI 25c

FULL CREAM CHEESE 15c LB.

BRICK CHEESE 18c LB.

SNOW APLES 25c PECK 12½ POUNDS.

SWIFT'S JERSEY BUTTERINE, 18c LB.

6 LB. SK. FINE TABLE SALT 5c.

KELLOGG'S TOASTED CORN FLAKES 8c PKG.

BIRD BRAND COFFEE 28c LB.

JAPAN TEA 50c LB.; 3 LBS $1.20.

3 BOTTLE CATSUP 25c.

3 BOTTLES MUSTARD 25c.

9 BARS SWIFT PRIDE SOAP 25c.

SOUP RINGLES 5c PKG.

NOODLES 5c PKG.

PURE CODFISH 15c BRICK.

LARGE HONEY COOKIES 10c DOZEN.

BUY YOUR CANNING PEARS NOW ONLY 85c BASKETS OR CRATES.

E. R. WINSLOW

24 N. Main St. Both Phones.

Thomas Vall, Emil Knoblauch, George W. Graves.

Accounts.

John Duthie, John Watson, John P. Thompson, James Kennett, David Coughlin, Ellen M. Serich, Edmund A. Thompson, W. H. Carpenter, Victor H. Gorder, Edward H. Smith, (Inc.), Lemuel Paul.

BRIEF PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Deards of Washington, D. C., who have been visiting in the city, departed for their home today.

Mrs. Harry Harrison of Appleton is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Doty.

County Superintendent O. D. Antle was in Milton yesterday.

Mrs. W. F. Hayes and daughter, Miss Elva Hayes, are visiting in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward have returned to their home in Fond du Lac after a visit in the city.

Miss Marcela Rogan will entertain tomorrow evening at her home on East street in honor of Miss Mildred Doty, who leaves next week for Chicago to attend a school of acting.

Mayor David Zull of Whitewater was in the city yesterday.

Miss Mabel Charlton has returned from a visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClure of Minneapolis are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King.

The Ladies' Afternoon Whist club met this afternoon with Mrs. Anna Baker, St. Lawrence avenue.

T. D. Woolsey of Beloit was in the city on local business yesterday.

Miss D. Bonstead of Chicago is the guest of local relatives.

Miss Florence McArthur of Beloit was the guest of Mrs. John Nichols on South Third street yesterday.

Mrs. Ernest Newell and son, Chas., who have been the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Randall, have returned to their home in DeForest, Wis.

Miss Susan Jeffrie and Miss Agnes Grubel are visiting in Chicago.

Miss Louise Stillman is visiting in Edgerton.

Mrs. W. H. Cornett has returned from a trip to Chicago.

P. W. Coon of Edgerton was in the city on business yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller have returned from Indiana where they were called by the death of Mr. Miller's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sykes spent Thursday with friends in Edgerton.

Attorney T. D. Woolsey of Beloit, was a business visitor at the court house this morning.

NASH

Chickens.

Hens and Broilers.

Prime Steer Beef.

Roasts Beef, Veal, Lamb, Pig.

Mutton.

Leg o' Lamb, Leg Mutton.

Hamburger Steak and Loaf.

Veal and Beef Loaf.

Fresh Shoulder of Pork 10c lb.

2 lbs. H. R. Lard 25c.

2 lbs. Cottenet 25c.

2 lbs. Snowdrift Compound 25c.

Pork Sausage.

Picnic Hams 10c lb.

Sparrows.

Head Cheese, N. E. Ham.

White Salt Pig Pork 12½c lb.

Pin Bone Steaks 15c lb.

Bologna and Liver Sausage.

Wieners and Summer Sausage.

Club House Roasts Beef.

We pay 21c cash, 22c trade for eggs.

Jersey Sweet Potatoes.

Cleaning up sale on Pears.

Canning Pears 85c bu.

Pear sale to clean up, 85c bu.

Colorado Elberta Peaches.

Michigan Peaches.

Concord, Tokay and Emperor Grapes.

Celery, Cauliflower.

Pickling Onions, Cabbage.

Egg Plant, Carrots, Turnips.

Richelieu Coconut 20c lb.

Richelieu Raisins 12c.

Walter Baker's Chocolate 30c.

Jell-O, any flavor, 8c.

3 Nonesuch Mince Meat 25c.

Figs and Dates.

Marshmallow Candy 20c lb.

Pure Coconut, 25c lb.

Pure Spices and Condiments.

New Hickory Nuts 5c lb.

Calumet Baking Powder 25c.

25 c. K. C. Baking Powder 25c

Red Ripe Tomatoes 60c bu.

Table Peas 18c doz.

Table Potatoes 75c bu.

Best 50c Tea on earth.

Best 30c Coffee on earth.

3 lbs. Richelieu Coffee $1.00.

Coast Seal Oysters 50c qt.

3 lbs. Cape Cod Cranberries 25c.

Frou Frou 35c lb.

Self-Rising Pan Cake 10c.

Libby's Milk 5c and 10c.

3 cans Borden's Eagle Milk, 50c.

Purity Patent Flour $1.15.

Gold Medal Flour $1.35.

Mason Pint Jars 45c.

Swansdown Pastry Flour 25c.

8 Santa Claus or Lenox 25c.

6 Old Country Soap 25c.

6 Sunny Monday Soap 25c.

100 Sunny Monday Soap $4.00.

6 Kirk's Flaked White Soap 25c.

Home Baking.

GROCERIES AND MEAT.

NASH

24 N. Main St. Both Phones.

NOLAN BROS.

CASH GROCERY

The big special sale still continues.
15 lbs. Cane Sugar ..... $1.00
With $1.00 worth of other groceries; soap not included.
Choicest Home Grown Potatoes, bushel of 60 lbs. .... 65c Sound Ripe Tomatoes, bushel of 56 lbs. .... 50c
Onions, fancy, dry, pk. .... 35c
3 cans Best Grade Sweet Corn ..... 25c
3 cans best Peas ..... 25c
3 cans Solid packed Pumpkin ..... 25c
Quality Premium Chocolate, lb. .... 25c
½ lb. tins Quality Premium Cocoa ..... 15c
Extra fancy California Peaches, doz. .... 20c
Fancy Concord Grapes, bkt. 17c
Fancy Hand Picked Navy Beans, lb. .... 6c
7 lbs. Best grade Oatmeal ..... 25c
Club House high grade Coffee, lb. .... 30c
Mason Fruit Jars, quarts, pints and half gallons.
3 doz. extra thick Jar Rings 25c
Mason Jar Caps, doz. .... 20c
9 bars Lenox Soap ..... 25c
8 bars Santa Claus Soap ..... 25c
8 Old Country Soap ..... 25c
Fresh Alaska Red Salmon can ..... 18c; 2 for 35c
2 pkgs. Cottage Breakfast Food ..... 25c
Kellogg's Club House or Mother's Corn Flakes, 2 pkgs. .... 25c
Bu. Baskets Canning Pears 95c
Bushel Baskets Extra Fancy Duchess Pears ..... $1.45
New Holland Herring, kegs, Mixed ..... 85c
Milk ..... 90c
We pay 22c doz. for strictly fresh Eggs.
Genuine Open Kettle Leaf Lard, lb. .... 15c
5-lb. pails strictly pure Leaf Lard ..... 75c
3-lb. pails Strictly Pure Leaf Lard ..... 45c
Spices of all kinds. Whole, mixed or ground for pickling.
Fancy Head Rice, lb. .... 5c
Extra large solid heads new Cabbage, each ..... 5c and 8c

Cudahy Cash Market

S. MAIN ST.

Fancy Cheese

Elkhorn Cream 10c.
Elkhorn Potted 10c.
Elkhorn Club, 10c, 25c jars.
Elkhorn Brick 20c lb.
Elkhorn Limburger 20c brick Elkhorn Swiss 20c lb.
Edams 95c each.
Sap Sage 10c cone.
Pinxter 30c tin.
Gammelost 35c jar.
Gedost 35c lb.
White American 20c lb.
Jar Roquefort 15c.
Loaf Roquefort 50c lb.
H. M. Cottage Cheese.
Imported Camembert 35c tin.

Cooked Ham

Home cooked and well cooked. If you like that fine old ham flavor, try this.
H. M. Veal Leaf 35c lb.
Highest grade Summer Sausage 30c lb.
Water Sliced Beef and Bacon New H. M. Jell 10c and 25c.
Bismarck Jumbo Dills 15c dz.
Bismarck Mix Pickles, 25c quart jar.
New C. H. Apple Butter, 25c qt. tin.

Dedrick Bros.

The Model Market

WE CALL OUR MARKET THE "MODEL MARKET" because it is everything that a meat shop should be. The goods which we send into your home are pure and free from adulteration and both in the quality and measure we strive to give our customers a square deal. We have been doing this and that is why we have succeeded.

A FEW OF THE SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY

Spring Chicken.

Old Chicken.

Lamb Stew.

Mutton Stew.

Leg o' Lamb.

Leg o' Mutton.

Beef Liver.

Calf Liver.

Prime Roast Beef.

Plate Beef.

Veal Stew.

Picnic Hams.

Everything first class.

PROMPT DELIVERIES

KUECK BROS.

THE MODEL MARKET

So. Jackson St. Both Phones

New Use for Electric Blower.

The electric blower for hot air furnaces has been successfully used for the heating of buildings.

A full line of Home Baking.

POPE WILL CALL A CONSISTORY SOON

MANY VACANCIES ARE TO BE FILLED IN COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

BUSINESS IS HASTENED

Catholic Church in America It is Now
Hoped Will Receive Proper Recognition at This Time.

Rome, Sept. 28.—That the Pope has practically decided to call a consistory in January to fill the twenty-three vacancies now existing in the College of Cardinals is stated in high Vatican circles. The result has been an immediate revival in speculation concerning the church dignitaries most likely to receive red hats.

One thing which seems almost a certainty is that the Catholic church in America will be accorded fuller representation than it has ever had before. Those most prominently mentioned for elevation to the purple are Archbishop Ireland, Archbishop Quayle of Chicago and Archbishop Farley of New York. Europeans whom churchmen think sure of appointments are Monsignor Granillo of Belmonte, former nuncio at Vienna, Monsignor Biletti, present major-domo to the Pope, and Monsignor Bello, patriarch of Lisbon.

Pope Pius' recent illness is said to have had much to do with determining him to hasten the calling of a consistory. To close friends his illness is said to have been a realization of the possibility of death at no very distant day and that one of his duties as supreme pontiff is to supply the necessary element, representative of the entire Catholic world, in the Sacred College, for the choice of his successor.

With seventy odd Cardinals in the Sacred College, each of whom was eligible to the Holy See and each of whom had a large number of relatives and a large following of personal supporters it naturally followed that the death of a pope and the election of a successor carried with it a decided amount of personal interest to a goodly portion of Rome's Catholic population.

With the elevation of the last two popes, Leo XIII. and Pius X., however, all of this was changed. Pope Leo failed to take into the papal household any of his relatives or supporters. On the former he settled his private fortune but none was allowed any emoluments out of the church funds and his supporters did not even come in for a reward of his own limited personal funds.

The same policy was followed by Pope Pius. The immediate members of his family still occupy the same humble positions they occupied in life when Giuseppe Sarotti became a priest, then cardinal, then patriarch of Venice and then Pope. None of them have profited by a penny out of the church funds as the result of his elevation to the papacy and as Pope Pius himself was not a candidate for the papacy before the conclave which elected him it naturally followed that he had no supporters to reward.

With this new order of things fully established now by two popes it is considered unlikely that the old custom will ever be revived and therefore although Rome in a way is as keenly interested as ever in the possible death of a Pope, the interest is now lacking in the element of hoped for personal gain.

By expressing the wish that his body be given a final resting place in St. Peter's, which adjoins the Vatican and in which forty of his predecessors are already buried, Pope Pius has obviated the possibility of a repetition of the distressing scenes which followed the removal of the body of Pope Pius IX. about 20 years ago from St. Peter's to the church of San Lorenzo outside the city walls, and as a result of which the body of the late Pope Leo is still at St. Peter's.

For centuries past it has been the custom of the Popes to express before their death the name of the church they wish their remains to have a final resting place in. Leo XIII. chose the church of Saint John Lateran which is the highest ranking cathedral in the Catholic church, being the Pope's own basilica. In accordance, also, with the established custom, his body was given a temporary resting place in St. Peter's in a tomb that is maintained for that special purpose, until his tomb at St. John Lateran should be completed. This tomb has now been in readiness for about two years but the body of Pope Leo still reposes in St. Peter's and it is believed that it was to prevent the repetition of such a situation as well as the causes that have kept the transfer from being made that Pope Pius has expressed his desire to be buried in St. Peter's.

The failure to remove the body of Pope Leo to St. John Lateran is due to the fear of a repetition of the demonstration by the lower political parties of Rome which followed the removal of the body of Pope Pius IX. to the predecessor of Pope Leo, to the church of San Lorenzo. The funeral took place at night and a large crowd of the lower classes of the city, subjected to distressing indignities and it was even feared for a time that the body might not reach San Lorenzo in safety, although this was finally accomplished.

Pope Leo himself witnessed the distressing affair from his windows in the Vatican and it is declared to have made a profound impression on him. Nevertheless, he expressed the desire that his own body should be buried outside St. Peter's but the Vatican authorities have hesitated thus far to take the risk of a similar demonstration and Pope Pius has definitely decided to obviate the possibility of such a demonstration in his own case, by asking for interment in St. Peter's.

The terrible heat of the past summer in Rome, which has been one of the hottest the city has had for years, has served again to emphasize the position in which the Pope is placed by the failure of the Italian government to create for the Catholic church an independent political state over which the Pope would be the temporal ruler and which would obviate what the Pope now considers his imprisonment within the walls and of the Vatican and the Vatican gardens.

During the heated season in Rome absolutely everyone in Vatican, Quirinal, business and social circles leaves the city, the Pope alone being obliged to remain because of his imposed imprisonment. It is pointed out that Pope Leo died during the heated term of 1903 and the serious illness of Pope Pius during the recent heated term is cited as another reason for the church being granted a temporal kingdom whereby the Pope also could leave the city in the summer. The question, however, seems fully as far from settlement as ever.

TRIPOLI AFFAIR IS VERY INTERESTING

Every American School Boy Knows
Tale of United States' Stand Against the Pirates of Early Days.

Doubtless if you should ask almost any Janesville school boy as to the part Tripoli had played in the history of the United States he could tell you without stopping to refer to any history or note book. However, there are a good many grown ups that have forgotten their school lessons in the every-day rush of business life or bridge games who may be interested to learn the following facts set down briefly. With Italy about to land an armed force on its coast, Turkey massing its troops to defend its rights it is a point of interest to all who read the daily news. The Gazette receives a full report of the world's telegraphic news daily through the medium of the United Press and the Associated Press services. The Associated Press dispatches come to the Gazette by way of the Postal Telegraph company, while the United Press news is received over a recently leased telephone wire and is taken down on the typewriter by a stenographer. As there will be more or less war news in the next few days the following facts have been gleaned from history for the benefit of all:

A century ago its Bay charged other nations an annual fee to suppress piracy. America tired of paying blackmail, and Bainbridge and Decatur in 1815 smashed the Bay. Fortunately we did not annex dependencies in those days.

Deprived of the profits of piracy, the Bays fell under Turkish dominion. Now Italy wishes the country. Turkey might reply: "Take it and welcome. It is the last thing we have left in Africa, since France took Tunis and the English Egypt, and it costs us more than we get out of it." But Turkey will do nothing so sensible, forgoing loss of prestige.

The Turkish army is as large as the Italian and notable for fighting quality; but with few ships and strained credit, how could the young Turks in Stambul get met to Tripoli to defend it? The Italian navy is modern, Italian credit excellent. The proposal of a loan that shall respect Turkish sovereignty offers a way out. That is the way encroachments upon Turkish territory generally begin, but if this encroachment is stopped it will be by the other European powers and not by protests from Constantinople.

Italian credit grew stronger the day she abandoned her futile attempt to conquer Abyssinia. Tripoli, with 1,000,000 people, mostly Mohammedan, is also quite capable of a new master. The country consists of a narrow, fertile belt along the sea, a chain, disputed by France, to some passes in the Sahara, and three canal routes to the barren, savage interior of the continent. Yet it is big enough to disturb the peace of Europe if fighting over it begins.

DEMAND ACCOUNT OF ALL CIGARS MADE

Government to Require Revenue on Cigarmakers' Free Smokes Which Must Hereafter Come From Stamped Boxes Only.

No more free smokes for cigarmakers if the government has its way. A notice mailed by the commissioner of Internal Revenue to the seven cigar factories in this city calls their attention to sections 3399 and 3398 of the revised statutes which prohibit the removal of unstamped cigars and cigarettes from bonded factory premises by workmen or other persons as "smokes," under penalties ranging from fines of $100 to $1,000 and terms of imprisonment from six months to two years.

The law was enacted many years ago, but up to the present time it has been practically a dead letter. Cigarmakers have been in the habit of using as many cigars daily as they wanted, within prescribed limits, taking them from stock which has not been packed or stamped. Under the orders recently received, this practice will no longer be tolerated, and all cigars manufactured, whether smoked by the maker or sold, will have to be taken from a revenue stamped package. In other words, the cigarmakers will have to pay for their smokes.

Considerable doubt is expressed by local cigarmakers as to the possibility of enforcing the law, especially the drastic ruling that factories will be required to pay at the rate of $3.00 per thousand for each cigar that has been consumed by employees from an unstamped box in the last two years. The estimate will be based on the number of employees in each factory. The refund in some instances would amount to a large sum.

The purpose of large manufacturers to cut down the expense of raw material for "smokes," as well as the desire of the government for more revenue is given by some as the cause of the recent ruling of the revenue department. Each male cigarmaker, according to local manufacturers, smokes on an average, three cigars a day. On Sundays and holidays the number is doubled. In large manufacturing, employing a thousand or more hands, the expense to the manufacturer for free smokes runs up to a large figure in the course of a year, and the government is also the loser of revenue on them. If free cigars are given to employees in compliance with the law they will cost the manufacturer the expense of packing and the revenue on each box.

Envasion of the law by cigarmakers is said to be almost impossible. A thousand cigars must be made out of every twenty-five pounds of tobacco, according to the department's ruling, and a tax is imposed on left over tobacco, but by close work more than a thousand cigars can be made out of that quantity, and it is difficult to keep

CANNOT FIND MAN RESPONSIBLE FOR INJURY TO WOMAN

Authorities Find It Impossible Task to Discover Identity of Driver Whose Car Struck Rig in Which Mrs.
Marvin Milford Was Riding.

That the identity of the men who were responsible for the accident to Mrs. Marvin Milford, which resulted in the breaking of her collarbone, the latter part of June, when the rig in which she was riding was struck by an automobile, will never be discovered, is the conclusion reached by District Attorney Stanley G. Dunwiddie and Sheriff E. H. Ransom. The district attorney and sheriff have made a careful investigation of the affair but the facts obtainable are not sufficient to definitely place the blame on the guilty party.

The accident occurred at a turn of the road, the driver, who was driving at a rate of speed estimated by observers at between forty and fifty miles an hour, taking the wrong side of the road. When the car hit the rig in which Mrs. Milford was riding, she was thrown out forcibly. Common courtesy and the rules of the road say that the man at the wheel of the machine should have stopped to determine what damage he had done, but instead the auto was driven off and vanished in a cloud of dust. Efforts were made at Edgerton and Madison to stop the car, but the driver evidently went around both cities. The machine was a yellow roadster and evidently of the Marmon make, as a car answering the description of the one in the accident stopped in Janesville and was noticed by George Decker and a local garage man and a number of other people in the city. A rural mail carrier who saw it, claimed that the first three figures of the license tag were 203 and the license was issued in Illinois.

Shortly after the accident Sheriff Ransom and Mr. Milford went to Rockford and Chief of Police Dargren of Rockford reported a car answering the description owned in Rockford by a man who had gone into northern Wisconsin. About two weeks ago District Attorney Dunwiddie went to Springfield, Ill., to examine the state automobile license register books. He found, however, that the records were indexed in alphabetical order and not arranged by number, and gave up the task of finding the car by a search through a list of forty thousand names. Later the district attorney made a trip to Rockford to investigate and to determine the ownership of a yellow Marmon roadster, answering the description given of the car which figured in the accident. Two cars of the Marmon make were found in that city, the other was a yellow machine. This other was a yellow machine. This auto had at first been owned by a Mr. Volt, then passed into the hands of Roberts & Son and finally was sold to Dr. Green within the last year. While owned by the first parties it had borne the number 15141, old serial 19340. A careful examination of the list of cars registered in Rockford, according to the Illinois laws, failed to disclose any automobile bearing a number containing 203 as the first three figures.

The facts in the case are very meager and make the work of the officials in attempting to trace down the offender very difficult. The natural impulse of those who witnessed the accident was to look after Mrs. Milford to see how badly she was injured and care for her and the driver made his get-away in the confusion following the accident.

BROADHEAD YOUNG MAN DIED YESTERDAY MORNING

Broadhead, Sept. 28.—Herbert Fleck, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. B. Fleck of this city, died at the home on Thursday morning at 11:25 of apoplexy, he being at the time only 20 years of age. Funeral will be Saturday at the home, at two o'clock.

Personal.
Rev. J. G. Smith was a passenger to Milwaukee Thursday.
Miss Rhine Cunningham is visiting Julia friends for a few days.
Rev. J. G. Smith visited with Milwaukee friends Thursday.
Meadames Chas. Mooney and Edwin Stewart spent Thursday in Janesville.
Mrs. M. H. Doty was a passenger to Madison Thursday to spend the day.

N. E. Franco of Plattville, State Bee Inspector, spent Wednesday night and part of Thursday in this vicinity on official business.
Broadhead friends of Rev. J. A. Anderson of Juda are pleased to learn he is improving after a stroke of apoplexy some two or three weeks since. F. L. Hearles left Thursday morning for St. Olaf, Iowa, on business connected with the machinery depot he recently purchased. He will also take a trip into North Dakota.

Meadames A. Barnes and C. F. Cronk went to Madison Thursday to spend the day.
Misses Myrtle Newcomer and Florence Monr and Mrs. Frank Douglas spent Thursday in Janesville.
Miss Lena V. Newman is attending the State Suffrage convention now being held in Racine. She will spend some time in Janesville before returning home.

The Skin and Not the Blood.
Until recently it has been generally held that eczema was a disease of the blood, and that in order to cure it, the blood must be purified and enriched by internal remedies. Careful experiments and scientific investigations have taught us that eczema is purely a skin disease, and curable through the skin alone. A great majority of persons afflicted with eczema have no other ailment, which is accepted as positive proof that it is purely a skin disease. Having established this fact, the chemists of the American Drug and Press Association set about to compound a preparation that would successfully cope with this disease, and after much investigation brought out Meritol Eczema Remedy, the effect of which is marvellous. If you are afflicted with this loathsome disease, do not delay trying Meritol Eczema Remedy. You will be surprised at its prompt action, its soothing effect and its permanent results. Reliable Drug Co. are commissioned by the association to sell it in

STEEL GIRDERS FOR BRIDGE ARE ON WAY

Girders to Be Used in Construction of Bridge Were Shipped
This Week.

Steel girders for the Racine street bridge were shipped to the Central States Bridge company at this city this week and the work on the bridge will without doubt be completed this fall. An orange peel dredge for pumping out the tubes used in the construction work under water arrived today and was put in use, replacing the old pump which proved unsatisfactory for the needs. An error was made in last evening's issue which stated that the Racine street bridge would probably not be completed until spring. The Fourth avenue bridge will not be finished until after the snow has gone and the Central States Bridge company of Indianapolis, who are doing the work on the Racine street structure and will build the Fourth avenue bridge, asked until June, 1912, in order to give them time to have the work all completed.

SOUTH MAGNOLIA.

South Magnolia, Sept. 28.—The suicide of Mrs. Edward Pfeiffer came as a surprise to all. The day previous she got a mail order from the postman and seemed in good spirits. It is believed that ill health was the direct cause of her act. The husband and three children have the sympathy of the community.

Mrs. Mary Clark and daughters spent Wednesday and Thursday with relatives here.

Dr. Smith of Evansville made a professional call at Frank Van Sike's Tuesday.

Mrs. Minnie Harper was the guest of Koshkonong relatives from Friday until Monday.

Mr. M. Harper and Elliot Fraser delivered stock in Calvary Monday.

Arthur Skelly of Beloit is assisting James Houghton.

The H. U. met with Mrs. Will Letts Thursday.

Mrs. Lottie Edwards spent a part of last week and this with her daughter here.

MARRIAGE LICENSES AS ISSUED RECENTLY

Marriage licenses were issued late yesterday afternoon at the office of the county clerk as follows: Will F. Nichols of Racine, Ill., and Bess A. Theobald; Robert Elmer Jones of the town of Bradford, and Susie J. Decker of the town of Harmony; Ray D. Decker of the town of Bradford, and Lela N. Jones of the town of Bradford. A special permit was issued at the office of the county judge this morning to Charles F. McCarthy and Marie Furbert, both of the town of Porter.

Mrs. Cornelia at Held's has returned from Chicago with a full line of pattern hats, in dress, tailored and street hats. The hats are priced very reasonably. Archibald & Co.

Dress, tailored and street hats are given a thorough representation here now. They are priced very reasonably. Archibald & Co.

The Flawless Columbia Double Disc Phonograph Records Will Now be at Your Service Every Month

WE have taken over the exclusive agency for the Columbia Disc Graphophone and Grafanola, recently handled by L. N. Skavlem, and will now be able to sell every type of this machine from $15.00 up to $200.00

and to supply you each month with the advance Double Disc Records, which have become famous throughout the country for their perfect tone and for the number of artists who furnish their voices to make these living and breathing reproductions.

You are invited to come in and listen to these records at any time and especially each month at the time when the advance lot for the month arrives

Come in and Inspect

The Columbia "Lyric" Price $25.00

HORNLESS

"Hearing is believing" when it comes to Columbia Machines and their matchless records. The time you spend in hearing will be well spent—especially the latest perfected models.

11 S. Main St.

F. M. TANBERG

Both Phones

TODAY'S EVANSVILLE NEWS

RETURN WITH LARGE SHIPMENT OF SHEEP

Evansville Men Bring 6,400 Head of Sheep From Omaha for Feeding Purposes—Other Evansville Items.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Evansville, Sept. 28.—W. W. Gillies,
Carl Hunsell, Bert Lay and Charles Wells have returned from Omaha where they purchased 6,400 head of sheep and lambs, which arrived yesterday morning. Except for a few hundred head these will be divided among the farmers of this section in small lots for feeding and preparation for market. Among the assignments which have been made to date are the following: Arthur Franklin, 600;
Fred Miller, 450; John Higgins, 320;
Edith Allen, 300; F. Johnson, 300;
Ole Pursatt, 300; Will Steel, 180; and Thomas Steel, 225.

Mr. Brunsell also brought a car of feeding cattle which he will prepare for market.

To Celebrate Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. Low Follow will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding day this evening by entertaining the members of the Good Times club at their home near Fellow's Station.

To Assist in Work.
Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell of Oil City, Pa., who have been visiting at the home of H. M. Van Worman, and other relatives here, leave for Janesville tomorrow where Mr. Hartwell will act as assistant in the Y. M. C. A. work.

Other News.
The Tourist club will hold their first meeting of the season next Tuesday evening. They will continue the study of the modern drama.
The Phoenix Literary society will meet in the sanctuary chapel this evening when the new officers will be installed, after which a program will be given. The meetings will be held weekly this year instead of semi-monthly. The officers will be as follows: Arthur Howard, president;
Miss Ida Syverson, vice president;
Miss Mary Paul, secretary; Hugh Denton, chaplain.

Miss Lola Smith will go to Whitewater this evening to spend over Sunday with her parents.
Mrs. Seymour Furrington is spending a few days with friends in Heloit.
Mrs. E. Sargent and Mrs. Charles Cleveland spent yesterday in Janesville.

EVANSVILLE.
Evansville, Sept. 28.—Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Winton are visiting relatives in Johnstown.

Mrs. E. Gable went to Janesville
this morning.
Mr. E. P. Cullen, local agent for the C. & N. W. Ry., who has been away on his vacation, returned today and expects to resume his duties next week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hartley, Rev.
and Mrs. D. G. Gable, Mr. and Mrs.
Van Wart, Dr. Spencer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Linker, Mr. and Mrs.
W. G. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. As-sell, Dr. Colony and wife, Mrs. Anna
Green, Miss Hattie Axtell and W. P.
Higley left today in automobiles for Johnstown where they will spend the day.

Mrs. Della Lee received a check from the Equitable Fraternal Benefit Union for $2367 for the insurance of her husband who died recently. The company was very prompt in making payment. The proceeds were received Saturday and the check this morning.

EVANSVILLE.
Evansville, Sept. 28.—Mrs. Lee Campbell and daughter, Lucile, will start next Tuesday for Petersburg, Tennessee, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Eva Leonard. They expect to be absent about two weeks and before returning will spend a short time with relatives in Chicago and Hoopston, Ill.

Miss Alice Richardson leaves Sunday for North Carolina where she will teach music in an industrial school.
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Salisbury and daughter, Winifred of Oregon, are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs.
F. W. Hansen, today. Miss Salisbury will leave in a short time for Minneapolis where she goes to train workers for the United Charity.

Miss Grace Mooney of Janesville is here for a visit to Mrs. James Lay.
The men of the Baptist church are planning to hold a social at the church Friday evening of this week.

Mrs. H. A. Knapp and daughter,
Alice, are spending a few days in Hickford.

William Lee and his mother, Mrs.
Maria Lee, returned yesterday from Ohio, where they have been visiting relatives for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Harry Curless of Brooklyn spat Thursday afternoon with local relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Spencer have returned from Menota Beach where they have been for the past two weeks.
F. H. Winston went to Johnston yesterday for a brief visit to relatives.

MEETING OF COMMITTEES
IN CHARGE OF FESTIVAL

Officers Were Elected by Milton Junction Citizens to Take Charge of Affair Next Year.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milton Junction, Sept. 28.—The committee that had charge of the Fall Festival last week met and elected officers for next year and gave an estimated report of the finances. It was thought that about sixty per cent of the money donated by business men would be returned. The following officers were elected for next year with power to call a meeting when needed:
A. M. Paul, president; Phil Winch secretary, and Robert Kelly treasurer.
They will call a meeting in a few days to make a final settlement. The festival proved a big success and will be repeated next year.

Personal.
Miss Eva Osborn, who has been working at Hostwick's in Janesville for the past nine years, has resigned her position and is home with her parents.

Miss Ella Bond and Ray McGowan are in Madison attending the university.

Karl Luchman is installing a furnace in the home of Bert Button.

S. E. Parks, deputy for the Woodmen, is working in this vicinity with very good success. He expects to put in a class of about fifty here next month.

A. O. Henderson has returned from his visit at Antigo.

Fred Garthwait has been laid up with a lame back.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Seeger are both confined to the house with bad colds.

The Forest team of the Woodman is being reorganized for work. Anyone desiring to join the team is requested to be at the next meeting,
Monday night, October 2.

Have an Aim in Life.

Go into a factory where they make mariners' compasses, and you may see the needles before they have been magnetized. They will then point in any direction, but from the moment they are applied to the magnet they point to the north, and are true to the pole ever afterward. In this they are like the young man before and after he has a purpose in life.

There's No Reason Why You Shouldn't Be Well

The way to get well, the way to health and happiness, is to get at the cause of your disease and remove it. No one will dispute these facts.
There is plenty of convincing evidence on all sides of you.

The wonderful science of Chiropractic, a science of simple truths simply applied, points the way to perfect health. No other way will do it. A barrel of medicine will have no effect. Chiropractic is the only science that goes straight at the cause of disease. It is the only science that has a record of 88 per cent of its patients getting well. Hundreds in Rock county who have come to us have gotten well and their sickness does not return because the cause of the disease has been removed.

If you suffer from sickness of any kind you, too, can be made well. Come and see us at once. Nothing is gained by delay, and your condition constantly becomes worse.

Write for our free booklet, "The Cause of Disease and Its Removal."

PUDDICOMBE &amp; PUDDICOMBE

Graduate Chiropractors. New Phone 970. Suite 405 Jackson Block.
Office Hours—9:00 A. M. to 12:00 P. M.; 2:00 P. M. to 6:00 P. M.; 7:00 P. M. to 8:00 P. M., daily. Home calls—Anyone wishing adjustments at their home will be accommodated at any time. Lady attendant.
Chiropractic is not medicine, nor surgery, nor osteopathy.

At Meisel's

Where Your Dollar Does Its Duty.

Here you can make your dollar go a great deal farther than anywhere else in this vicinity.

Saturday offerings: Boys' School Suits, sizes 8 to 17, regularly priced at $4 and $4.50, tomorrow at .....$2.75 and $2.25

Boys' School Shoes, gun metal, buttons, all sizes, regular $2.50 qualities, tomorrow at .....$1.75

Men's Sweater Coats; Thermo brand, an excellent make; grays only, just in, priced tomorrow at only, each ..$1
Others up to .....$4.00

Men's Shoes, fine dress shoes, ..$2.50, $3.50 and $3.00

Mens' Blue Serge Suits at $10.00; also tans and grays, all sizes at .....$10.00

MEISEL'S

20 SO. RIVER ST. MONEY SAVING LOCATION.

EDGERTON TEAM TO OPEN ITS SEASON

High School Eleven Will Play First Game With Cambridge Tomorrow.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Edgerton, Sept. 28.—The football season in Edgerton will open tomorrow (Saturday) when a game will be played in the afternoon at the Driving Park between the high school teams of Edgerton and Cambridge. The home team has been in practice for the event for some time and much interest is manifested over the showing that will be made on the day scheduled.

Junior League Party.
The Junior League of the M. E. church last night gave an autumn party in the church parlors which was participated in by between fifty and sixty members. A most enjoyable time was had and the event came to a close with the serving of light refreshments.

Entertain Lady Clerks.
Mr. and Mrs. James Keller last night entertained the force of lady clerks of the Pringle Bros. & Keller department store at a 6:30 supper at their home on Washington street. The menu was a four-course affair and enjoyed immensely. Those present were: Misses Olga Hanson, Lena Hange, Eva Holson, Annetta Larson, Christie Bowen, Edith Wileman and Antie Kegan. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and all enjoyed a delightful time.

To Give Reception.
The members of the Congregational church society are making arrangements for a reception to be tendered Rev. F. W. Schoenfeld, the new pastor, next Monday evening at the church parlors.

Personal.
Rev. G. K. Mac Innis returned home this morning, having been attending the annual conference of the Methodist held at Antigo for the past ten days.
Mrs. Robert P. Malnard of Chicago arrived last night on a visit of one or two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bowen and other relatives.
C. G. Hederman spent yesterday in Jefferson, going there to settle his father's estate of which he was administrator.

Thomas Roscoe and Charles Ormsby of Janesville were Edgerton visitors yesterday afternoon.

The date of the annual harvest supper to be given by the ladies of the W. R. C. has been set for Tuesday, October 3, at their hall on Swift St.

Mrs. R. J. Maltress is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Charles Howard of Milwaukee.

Mrs. Geo. Stricker and sister, Miss Amanda Handthe are in Fulton for a few days visit to their parents at that place.

Miss Harriet Jones, graduate of the Edgerton high school with class of 1911 has taken her departure for Evergreen, Ala., to teach in a colored school there.

Charles Lund left this morning for Fort Atkinson where he has accepted a position with a manufacturing company at that place.

Forests Here and in Russia.

Russia leads the way in planting trees, and America in devastating them.

Awfully Original.
"Don't you think Charley Pawlesley is awfully original?" "Yes, awfully. I introduced him to Mary Smith the other evening and he didn't say it seemed as if he had heard that name somewhere before."

Tree Fire: Chief Klein and two of the men from the West Side fire station went out in the chief's auto last night about eleven o'clock to attend to an electric wire on South Main street near Racine street. The rubbing of the wire against the limb of a tree had burned the limb.

Special Prices on Pattern Hats
at the Hat Shop

You all know the excellent quality of the Gage line of Pattern Hats. There are none better. For tomorrow we have taken our entire line of Gage Pattern Hats, including street and dress tailored hats and priced all the $7 and $8 models at $5.00

Our opening display continues through tomorrow. If you haven't been in yet, we extend you a cordial invitation to do so tomorrow.

Mrs. Jas. Kemmett

THE HAT SHOP. 302 W. MILWAUKEE STREET.

REHBERG'S

YOU probably value your appearance too much not to wear good clothes---we value our reputation too much to show you any other kind. Your interest right now is probably centered in light weight overcoats, so is ours—fine coats, fine fabrics, correct patterns, new weaves, late models, $12 upwards, some fine ones at $15 and $20.

DON'T let a Fall overcoat cover a multitude of suit sins, we've some very fine suits here that we're sure you'll want one.
Blue and brown oxfords, grays, tans, blues, mixtures, etc., $15, $18, $20.

Rehberg's Royal Suits

HERE'S a special line of suits specially made to sell at $15. They're made exclusively for us; and embody the best ideas of one of the foremost makers in this country. Any Rehberg Royal Garment is worth considerably more than $15, but we're able to quote this very reasonable price because of our special arrangements with the manufacturer to handle so many suits a year. Ask for a Rehberg Royal Suit.

At $20 These are suits you may well be proud to own. They'll do justice to your appearance; that appearance is worth something to you; these suits improve it. Made by such master tailors as Hirsh-Wickwire, Michaels-Stern & Co., etc. You cannot spend $20 to better advantage than by purchasing one of these suits. Also some very fine ones at $18.

Fall Shoes

When you see the shoes, know the service and realize the values you get here, you'll understand the reason for the immense shoe business we do each season. It's the largest in town. The fall and winter models are all ready for you.

WOMEN'S The new Aero Boot promises to be the most popular creation this season. 16 and 17 button, all leathers, at $4.00. All the models in high cut shoes are shown in Velvets, Satins Tans, Patents and Gun Metal leathers, $4.00.

MEN'S Tans again predominate, we've got the blacks though, for the man who wishes them. In fact, we've got anything you might want in the shoe line. And they'll be comfortably fitted to your feet, not your feet fitted to the shoes. Isn't that the kind of shoes you want?

AMOS REHBERG CO.

THREE STORES—Clothing, Shoes, Furnishings—ON THE BRIDGE

TALK TO LOWELL

Have You Visited Our New Hardware and Stove Store

Our stock is not nearly all in yet, but we are getting into shape and will show you a fine up-to-date stock in a very short time.

Our stoves are on the road and we expected to have them all in shape by this time, but have been disappointed.

They will be here soon, however, and then we will be ready to talk to you.

We have the celebrated "ACORN" line of stoves and the "QUAKER" steel furnace.

Do not forget us when in need of anything in the Hardware, Stove or Furnace Line.

E. W. LOWELL

EAST MILWAUKEE STREET

TALK TO LOWELL

LOCAL DEALERS ARE LEISURELY BUYING

All Organized Effort to Purchase the 1911 Crop Has Been Abandoned—Scarcity of Elmders.

No organized effort to purchase the buying movement can be detected in any of the growing districts at the present writing, according to the Edgerton Tobacco Reporter of present date, and the big operators, most active heretofore, apparently have dropped out of the field. Trading now is largely by local dealers and conducted with moderation for the quality of the cured leaf crops can now be seen.

Rules coming to notice showing the range of prices are:

Ole Swenson, 11a at 13 1/2 and 3c.
J. J. Hageborn, 11a at 10 and 3c.
Austin Holten, 11a at 12 and 3c.
A. J. Stoten, 11a at 10 and 3c.
A. J. Stoten, 11a at 10 and 3c.
August Schmeling, 11a at 8c straight.
Albert Somerfeldt, 11a at 8c straight.
Wm. Somerfeldt, 11a at 7c straight.
The market for old leaf continues along quiet lines with moderate sized transactions ruling. Andrew Jansen & Sons purchased 42c of 11a, E. E. & W. A. Hilters, Geo. Humrill reports the sale of about 50c for the week.

The last of the belated crops will be harvested this week and secured from the danger of frost. The early tobacco is curing down quite satisfactorily according to all reports.

Sampling of last season's packings is going forward and very little fault is found with the results.

The shipments out of storage reach 700 cases from this market to all points for the week.

Binders Are Scarce.

With manufacturers steadily increasing their output month by month, as is disclosed by the revenue returns, while the tobacco growing districts are gradually increasing acreage as well as total yield, the query arises, how long similar conditions may exist without being reflected strongly in the price of domestic leaf?

The government's September crop report gives the condition of the growing tobacco crop at 71 per cent, as against 82 for a ten year average; and half and frost since will still further reduce the September estimate several points as relates to the clear leaf prospects. The crisis seems likely to be reached the present year in domestic binder stock where the visible supply is far below the normal demand of the market. Country packers are practically sold out, neither is there much surplus in jobbers' hands. The large manufacturers alone are the only ones that are fortified for the occasion and are able to bridge over the shortage of a season.

MARKET HAD STRONG TONE THIS MORNING

[By United Press.]

New York, Sept. 29.—Although there was a little irregularity shown at the opening of the stock market, the tone became strong and stocks showed some gain.

HOGS ARE STRONG;
CATTLE ON DECLINE

Market For Hogs Showed Slight Tendency To Rally Today, While Cattle Were Lower.

[By United Press.]

Chicago, Sept. 29.—The hog market this morning showed an encouraging tendency to rally and there was a slight advance in most of the grades offered. The receipts were placed at 15,000, with a large number of light grades. The top of the market was $9.80.

The cattle market was weak with resulting lower prices ranging as much as ten cents. The majority of the 2,000 offered were of inferior grade and met with poor demand.

Sheep were weak and receipts poor. Quotations for today were as follows:

Cattle.

Market—receipts—2,800.
Market—weak.
Hogues—4.75@4.85.
Cows and heifers—2.00@2.20.
Stockers and feeders—3.25@3.45.
Calves—6.00@6.50.

Hogs.

Market—receipts—15,000.
Market—steady.
Light—5.50@5.75.
Heavy—5.50@5.75.
Mixed—5.00@5.25.
Pigs—4.00@4.15.
Rough—3.50@3.75.

Sheep.

Market—receipts—4,000.
Market—weak.
Western—2.75@3.10.
Native—2.25@2.40.
Lambs—4.00@4.50.

Wheat.

Sept.—Opening, 95 1/2; high, 95 1/2; low, 94 1/2; closing, 95 1/2.
Dec.—Opening, 93 1/2; high, 93 1/2; low, 92 1/2; closing, 93 1/2.

Rye.

Closing—65@66.
Barley.

Oats.

Sept.—16.
Dec.—13 1/2.

Corn.

Sept.—63 1/2.
Dec.—63 1/2.

Poultry.

Hens, live—9@10 1/2.
Springers, live—11@11 1/2.
Butter.

Creamery—27.
Dairy—22.
Eggs.

12 eggs—20 1/2.
Potatoes.

New—63@65.

Onions—12c@14c.
Poultry Market.

Broilers, dressed—11c.
Hogs.

Different grades—$8.50@17.00.
Steers and Cows.

Veal—$5.50@11.50.
Beef—$3.50@5.00.

Sheep.

Mutton—14.00@15.00.
Lamb, light—$4.00.
Lamb, butter and eggs.

Creamery—27c@28c.
Dairy—21c@22c.
Eggs, fresh—20c@21c.

Vegetables.

Green Apples, bu.—50c@75c.
Beets, bu.—50c.
New Potatoes, bushel—75c.
Sweet Corn—6 doz. 50c.
Musk Melons—35c@75c doz.
Watermelons, small—30c@50c.
Carrots—50c.

Elgin Butter Market.

Elgin, Ill., Sept. 28.—Butter, 20 1/2c; firm output Elgin district for week, 739,305 lbs.

NOTHING NEW SHOWN IN MARKETS TODAY

Peaches, Quinces and Grapes Still Plentiful and of Good Quality—Snow Apples Just Beginning To Appear.

There is nothing new today on the market, but the peaches, quinces and apples are still showing up in the shape and are improving in quality as the season wears on. Peaches are retailing at 25 to 55 cents a basket or $1.50 to $1.50 a bushel. Quinces range in price from 3 cents to 6 cents a pound. Although snow apples are not fully matured yet slightly green ones may be had now for 3 cents. Musk melons are gradually becoming scarcer and smaller in size as are the watermelons. The markets today are as follows:

Fresh Vegetables.

Beets, bunch—1 1/2c@2c lb.
Cabbage—5c to 10c each.
Lima Cucumbers—All.
Cucumbers—3 for 5c.
Carrots, bunch—1 1/2c@2c lb.
New Potatoes, yellow—2c@3c lb.
Onions (Texas yellow)—2c@3c lb.
Tomatoes, home grown—2c@3c lb.
Green Tomatoes—Any price.
Sweet Potatoes—25c pk., 4c@5c lb.
Cauliflower—10c@20c.
Cauliflower—20c@25c doz.
Summer Squash—5c@10c each.
Celery—5c@8c stalk.
Dill Weed—10c.
Citron—15c, 2 for 25c.

Fresh Fruit.

Apples, eating, fancy—4c lb.
Apples, cooking—2c@3c lb.
Bananas, dozen—10c@20c.
Concord Grapes, 11. G.—17c@20c basket.
Delaware Grapes—10c basket.
Malaga grapes—10c lb., 65c basket.
Tokay Grapes—10c@50c basket.
Lemons, per doz.—30c.
Plums, canning, basket—25c@30c.
Peaches, basket—25c@30c.
Peaches, bushel—$1.50@1.50.
Oranges, dozen—30c@50c.
Musk melons, each—5, 8, 10, 12 1/2c.
Pears, doz.—25c@40c.
Canning Pears, pk.—2c@1c lb.
Watermelons—1c@2c lb.
Quinces—1c basket.
Cranberries—15c lb.

Butter and Eggs.

Creamery butter, brick—32c@33c.
Dairy butter, lb.—27c.
Eggs, fresh, doz.—25c.
Butterine, lb.—15c@20c.
Flour, Nuts and Popcorn.

Hickory nuts, lb.—8c.
English walnuts—15c@25c.
Flour, per sack—$1.10@1.15.
Graham Flour, 10-lb. sacks—30c@35c.
Rye Flour, per sack—30c@70c.
Cornmeal, 10-lb. sack—25c.
Whole wheat flour, 10-lb. sack—35c@55c.
Popcorn—5c.

TO COLLECT SPAWN
FOR FISH HATCHERY

State Fish Commission Will Be Busy Securing Lake Trout Spawn for Bayfield Hatchery.

[Special to this Gazette.]

Madison, Wis., Sept. 28.—The state fish commission next week will commence the collecting of lake trout for the Bayfield hatchery. Export spawners are sent out in the fishermen's boats when they go to lift their nets. The female fish ready to spawn are relieved of their eggs by the commission employes and immediately impregnated with the milk of the male fish. The eggs are then placed in vessels made especially for them, and where they are returned until placed in the hatchery. The fish start to spawn some 20 days earlier in the waters of Lake Superior than in Lake Michigan.

The commission expects to collect some 200 bushels of lake trout eggs this fall for propagation in the Bayfield hatchery. The fry, when hatched, which will not be until next to the lakes from which the eggs were taken.

The taking of brook trout eggs at the various hatcheries will not be started until about Nov. 1. The commission expects to secure almost double the number of eggs taken in former years from the fry in the ponds. The locations of the two new hatcheries which are to be established on waters tributary to Lake Michigan have not yet been decided upon. The city of Sturgeon Bay has offered the commission a site for a hatchery if the commission will locate it there. The site will probably be accepted by the commissioners at the next meeting. The cities of Two Rivers, Port Washington and Sheboygan are also much interested in securing one of the hatcheries. All the details for the building of the new hatcheries will be completed this winter so that the contracts for construction may be let early in the spring, and the building be completed by October, 1912, fully equipped and ready for business. A year from now the two new hatcheries will be ready for their supply of eggs.

Do a Rooster and buy it in Janesville.

BALLINGER ANSWERS
FISHER'S ARGUMENT

(Continued from page 1).

Interior Department by taking from it all those bureaus that had anything to do with the public domain and, together, with the Forestry Bureau, concentrate them in another department, where their combined strength could be utilized to promote the propaganda designed to open the public domain as a national estate for the conservation of certain bureau chiefs. The Interior Department was left with the Patent Office, the Pension Office and the Eleemosynary Institutions. Even the national parks were to be taken from it and parcelled by men in green uniforms; the grazing lands were to be leased to the influential and more powerful stockmen; the mineral lands mined on lease or royalty to those who would contribute their support to this political-bureaucratic combination, and the water powers and rights of way distributed on a permit basis so as to hold the property as a vassal to the service. Finally agricultural lands, at least in reserves, were to be held on equally subservient and perilous tenure.

No more gigantic political scheme has ever been attempted in the history of the republic. It's greatest danger has been in its appeal to sentimentality and the delirious and permanent misrepresentation of facts; as, for instance, that the coal would be consumed in fifty years, the timber in an equal period, the water powers monopolized, the watersheds denuded, and posterity left naked and unprotected. The good intentions were all placed in the headlines—the motives were masked in platitudes.

"All of this had left the public in the same condition as the man who has been on a protracted drunk, with his head swelled, his mind uncertain and his purposes confused.

"No purpose, except Ruin, which adhered to the bureau men, has undertaken to treat the forests as national property. Germany, cited as a guide in forestry, does not adhere to the national forest idea. Her forests are held and managed by and the revenue turned into the several states. We all know the forest in our Rocky Mountain States are greatly dissimilar in character. It is they are to be entertained during the week's visit by the British military host how they can be made to con-and civil officials.

tribute to the welfare of that state. I am not unmindful that any such suggestion will be met with a grade of abuse from those who are interested in promoting the bureaucratic idea of national conservation and the individual who has the temerity to make the suggestion will at once be heralded as the agent of the interests; possibly of the Guggenheims, as they have been made the convenient target for all such assaults, and the suggestion will probably be attacked on the ground that the states have failed to show a proper appreciation and ability to handle their own public lands.

"The very isolation of Alaska and her inhospitable climate should move the government to give her greater freedom of development in respect to her natural resources. She should be free of all territories be burdened with bureaucracy. Government operation of her railways, her mines and her population and the withholding of capital for investment in any part of that region. The frenzied activity of the destruction has already destroyed her markets for capital and her natural wealth is in a fair way to be dormant until she ceases to be a political football and finally again prevails in the public mind."

Here Mr. Ballinger made what was regarded as a reply to Mr. Fisher: "The reformer turns the hands of the clock never turn backward, but is always sure the reforms he advocates are not the removal of discarded doctrines which were in their day the antithesis of reform? Are we progressing when we advocate the doctrine of federal oppression against which every line of the constitution cries out? Is it progress or the advancement of popular rights to give unbridled power to bureaucracy? No! It is going back to the evils we struggled to emancipate ourselves from. Again, in it progress and sound reform to say we will no longer tolerate the system which gave a few simple titles to the industrial and courageous prospector and settler in the public lands, a system which has made the great mass of our people home holders and the builders of new communities stored with wealth and civic progress unrivaled in all the range of human endeavor."

Boston Ancients Off on Jaunt.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 29.—The members of Boston's famous military organization, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, left the city this morning for a trip to Bermuda where they are to be entertained during the week's visit by the British military host how they can be made to con-and civil officials.

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE SESSION WAS OPENED AT RACINE

[By United Press.]

Racine, Sept. 29.—The first educational session of the Wisconsin Woman's Suffrage association was opened this morning with an inspiring address by the president, Mrs. Olympia Brown, who spoke encouragingly of the outlook and predicted that equal suffrage would prevail after 1912.

Kentucky W. C. T. U.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 29.—White ribboned delegates from all over the state gathered here today for the annual convention of the Kentucky organization of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Beginning with a welcome demonstration tonight the sessions of the convention will be continued until next Tuesday.

Maine Lifts Hunting Ban.

Bangor, Me., Sept. 29.—The ban on big game hunting in Maine will be lifted at mid-night tomorrow night, and hundreds of sportsmen are already in camp or on their way to the hunting grounds. Guides who have been in the woods recently report deer unusually plentiful this year.

Sea Island Cotton Growers.

Waldosta, Ga., Sept. 29.—A mass convention of the sea island cotton growers of Georgia, South Carolina and Florida met here today to discuss plans for marketing the crop and other matters of common interest. The conference will continue over tomorrow.

Defective Optimism.

Down in the Thousand Islands district there is published a paper called the Optimist. An Evanston man who was in the Optimist's office, the other day, wrote to us that on one of the walls of the sanctum this notice was displayed: "No credit extended here."

Paper From Sugar Cane.

Experiments are being made in Cuba in manufacturing paper from sugar cane fiber. The paper is high grade, and cheaper than it could be made from wood pulp.

Domestic Difficulty.

Old Lady (turning to neighbor during last act of tragedy)—Oh, Mister, but them 'Amlets 'ad a deal o' trouble in their family!—Punch.

50 feet from the High Rent District. 50 feet from the High Rent District.

The White House Bargain Counters

Special for Saturday

Bankrupt stock of Girls' and Boys' Shoes.....$1.25
Bankrupt stock of Men's Shoes, all sizes.....$1.98
Bankrupt stock of Ladies' Shoes, all sizes, $3.50 and $5.00 values.....$2.45
Ladies' Heatherbloom Skirts with deep flounce, $1.25 values, at.....89c
Ladies' Heatherbloom Skirts, $1.50 values.....$1.00
Ladies' Umbrellas, $1.25 value.....$1.00
Men's Umbrellas, $1.25 value.....$1.00
Children's Umbrellas, 75c value.....45c
Children's all wool serge Peter Thompson Dresses in red, blue and brown, $2.50 value, Saturday special.....$1.98
Lace Curtains in Oriental patterns, red, green, ecru and white, $1.25 value, per pair.....89c
Ladies' Shirtwaists, to clean up $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 values, all go at the one price.....89c
Ladies' 25c Silk Lisle Stockings, Saturday special.....17c
Ladies' 35c Silk Lisle Stockings, with garter top, Saturday special.....25c
Men's Heavy Fleeced Linen, 2-piece Sanitary Underwear, 50c value, Saturday special, each.....39c

NORTON & MAHONEY

ALWAYS ON THE SQUARE

READ GAZETTE WANT ADS

Store closed all day Monday on account of holiday. Do your shopping Saturday.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

Store closed all day Monday on account of holiday. Do your shopping Saturday.

We Have Now Gathered Here, Gentlemen, the Largest and Best Stocks of NEW FALL CLOTHING

Ever assembled in any store in entire Southern Wisconsin. Cool Fall Weather here and cooler on the way, has set hundreds of men and young men to thinking of new clothes, and as usual, The Golden Eagle is proving a mecca for all who seek the best in ready to wear apparel moderately priced. We emphasize our universally popular policy of displaying all the leading makes, no manufacturer being excluded whose product we deem good enough to satisfy our trade. This gives one the widest possible selection as regards style or pattern at whatever price suits him best.

All Sizes for Men and Specially Designed Styles for Young Men

Suits, Overcoats and English Slip-Ons at $10, = $15, = $20

At above prices you can choose from all new Autumn shades such as dark brown, Indian brown, bluish grays, tans, blues and heather mixtures, materials are fine worsteds, chevrons, Scotchies, etc., in the various new models brought out for Fall and Winter.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE SPECIAL HAND TAILORED CLOTHING—The last word in the development of fine ready for service clothes, is found in these high grade garments. Better clothing cannot be bought, and at a saving of $10 to $15 compared with Tailorman's price.....$25.00

POPULAR FUZZY SOFT HATS FOR MEN.

They're here—correct rough effects in proper shapes and proper colors.

Imperial Hat, if you are particular about getting the best quality, best style, $3.00 best value, assortments are complete and varied.

New Wide Brim Derby or more conservative models.

The New Fall Footwear FOR MEN

There's a lot of good shoes made at various prices, but it's safe to say the Best Shoes made at any given price will be found in our complete new Fall assortment now ready.

MEN'S POPULAR TAN SHOES, smooth and braided calfskin, dull and bright calf in the new snappy high toe, military heels, in over twenty new styles to select from.....$1.00 and $1.50
Beacon Goodyear Welt Shoes, all styles, all leathers, blucher and button styles, at.....$3.00 and $3.50
Boys' School Shoes, Mannish shoes for boys, overweight oak outer soles, all styles, priced.....$1.25 to $3.00

Our New Fall Shoes for Women

unequaled for beauty, fashion, quality and fit. Let us make this strong statement, fully justified by the facts. Awaiting you here today, are the New Fall Shoes which for beauty, for fashion, for quality, for fit, are unequaled in history of The Golden Eagle Store.

New Ideas in Tan Calf Dull, Kid, Cravenette, Suede and Patent Coltskin, some of these styles are extreme in the turn of the last, short, blunt toe, mostly button styles of most fashionable cut.....$3.00, $3.50 and $4.00

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat
BY RUTH CAMERON

SUPPOSE that an engineer had a certain great weight to lift. Suppose it took three hundred horsepower of pressure to lift that weight.

And suppose that the engineer should apply fifty horsepower to it, and then shut off his engine and then try again and again with fifty or seventy-five or a hundred horsepower.

Wouldn't we think he was an extraordinary foolish man? He has wasted his power, he would say, and has accomplished nothing. He would have done better to use all his power at once or not try to do the thing at all.

And yet how many people act just like that engineer?

I am thinking of a woman who lives with a very trying older sister.

The older woman is one of those people who make life miserable for all about them by harboring a thousand whims and caprices and cautions and irritating little prejudices and fustiness.

All of those things fret the younger sister to the verge of insanity, and she lives in a continual state of protest—fretful, nervous, impatient, resentful.

She argues, she pleads, she scolds, she nags.

But never—and here you catch my simile—never hard enough to do any good.

Her sister's obstinacy and self-will is a weight that cannot be moved except by some great pressure.

And that the younger sister never exerts.

As a result both their lives are embittered and saddened by perpetual petty warfare without one bit of good being accomplished.

Now this is the way it seems to me. That the only thing to be done in a case like this is for the younger sister to make up her mind that she, when she wants anything badly enough, will stand firm and get it, and that when she doesn't want anything enough to exert that pressure she will give up and give up pleasantly.

In other words, when the weight must be lifted, she will exert the necessary amount of power and lift it, and when it doesn't she won't waste her power.

In regard to the law of obedience, Elbert Hubbard says:

"Revolt is sometimes necessary, but the man who makes revolt and obedience is doomed to disappointment himself, and everybody with whom he has dealings. To flavor work with protest is to fail utterly."

It seems to me it's the same way with family life.

There are conditions in family life when revolt is absolutely necessary.

When you are sure these conditions exist, why revolt and do it thoroughly.

But when you know that acquiescence is wisest, why acquiesce and do it cheerfully.

Don't mix the two.

At least, not if you care anything for peace in your home.

The KITCHEN CABINET

HIS THAT commands me to my own content. Commands me to the thing I cannot get. —Shakespeare.

"To market, to market to buy a fat pig."

WE GO A MARKETING.

It is wise to decide before making the visit to the market just what and how much is wanted. There will be plenty of opportunity to change the mind when you find there is nothing in the market that you had planned for.

It is not always possible to visit the market yourself, but it pays in quality and it pays in price when those visits can be made.

The experienced buyer notices the amount of bone, gristle and other waste which certain cuts have, and she will consider the family to be served, the amount likely to be consumed and what may be done with the left-over meat.

If you see the meat cut and weighed you will then know what you have bought.

The one who takes the trouble to do her marketing in person has the pick of the choice things, and those who telephone must take what is left.

Beef to be good should be a bright color, the grain of the meat fine and the fat, yellowish white. Meat that has a fat, mottled appearance is doubtful. The meat of a good animal is white. Good beef is elastic to the touch and will not leave the impress of the finger when removed, although very tender beef may be easily pierced by the finger when pressed too hard.

If you have a good-natured butcher, he will not object to your looking over the meat; they appreciate an intelligent buyer, and the wiser they are in their business the more they enjoy a customer who wants to learn to buy intelligently. Mutton is known at a glance. Bright, crimson red; the fat white and firm. If you can get a sight of the liver it will tell of the state of health better than any other test.

Veal should never be eaten when hung more than a few days in summer, as it taints very quickly. If eaten too fresh it is apt to be tough and should be at least an animal of six weeks before marketing.

In testing fowls, a pliable breast bone is a good test. If it isn't broken, a test-home butchers' rule to deceive. The skin should be clean, the fowl plump and the legs and feet pliable, and the spurs short in young fowls.

Practice makes perfect in marketing as in other things.

—Nellie Maxwell.

DAILY DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

By DR. T. J. ALLEN
Food Specialist

WHITE VS. WHOLE WHEAT BREAD.

It is commonly asserted by recognized authorities that white bread is preferable to the whole wheat because it is more completely digested. This is easily determined by finding that there is a greater percentage of waste excreted from the entire grain flour. But a certain percentage of waste in the food is beneficial, furnishing the natural stimulus to the peristaltic action of the intestines, the imperfection of which often leads to constipation and its train of ills. Moreover, the external coating of the wheat, included in entire wheat bread, contains valuable nutritive elements which are excluded from the fine wheat bread. The only valid objection to the whole wheat flour is that it rots spoils and is therefore not as well adapted to commercial purposes as the denatured product.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

DESIGN FOR HANDKERCHIEF CASE.

This is a simple and pretty design for handkerchief cases, or fancy articles. The edge and body of the butterfly is worked solid, with the lines in the outline stitch, and the dots are worked in the outline stitch. The leaves and flowers are worked solid, and the stems in the outline stitch. Mercerized cotton, No. 25, is used.

FOREMOST WOMAN AVIATOR.

Miss Harriet Quimby, one of the foremost woman aviators who will fly this week in competition with the stern sex at Nassau Boulevard, Long Island. Miss Quimby is no novice, having made many successful flights.

ENTERTAINED CLUB AT 8:45 P.M. HOME LAST EVENING.

F. J. M. Organization Spent Pleasant Evening at Home of Miss Hazel Cokey.

Last evening Miss Helen Cokey entertained the members of the F. J. M. Club at the home of her parents, 422 S. Washington street. The evening was spent in various games, the honors being awarded to Miss Gertrude McCaffrey. A delicious luncheon was served the guests at the conclusion of the games.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

"MEMOIRS" THREATENS EUROPEAN SCANDAL.

Princess Lalla of Turcano has written a book which, so it is said, promises to reveal certain incidents and phases of European Society, including that of Courts, that will cause an upheaval in the circles with which the revelations have to do.

Attempts have been made by high personages, so it is averred, to persuade the Princess to squish her proposed publication but so far, without effect. The book is to appear some time this month.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

INFLAMMATION AND PAIN

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Creston, Iowa.—"I was troubled for a long time with inflammation, pains in my side, sick headaches and nervousness. I had taken so many medicines that I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. A friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it restored me to health. I have no more pain, my nerves are stronger and I can do my own work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me after everything else had failed, and I recommend it to other suffering women."

—Mrs. Wm. Sizals, 605 W. Howard St., Creston, Iowa.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs.

Women who suffer from these distressing ills should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. For 20 years she has been helping sick women in this way, free of charge. Don't hesitate—write at once.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

—Nellie Maxwell.

ARGO Gloss Starch

What a shame to take fresh clean washed clothes and put them into dirty starch—scooped from an open box.

Argo is a perfect Starch for all laundry uses—hot or cold starching. Get the clean Argo package, 5c.

The many uses of GOLD DUST

If you were to use, for each kind of washing, cleaning, scouring and scrubbing, one of the so-called special preparations which are made, you would have an imposing and expensive array of chemicals, washing compounds, cleaning pastes, etc.

There is one cleaner that has the virtues of all and the faults of none. Use Gold Dust and you have no need of borax, ammonia, kerosene or naphtha.

Gold Dust is

ON TO JANESVILLE STILL DISCUSSED; TRACK IN MADISON

Old, Old Gospel About Electric Road
From Deloit to Merrill Given Prominence in Madison Papers.

Once more the story about the Chicago and Wisconsin Valley Street railway company planning to extend their line from Madison to Janesville is given prominence in Madison papers. During the past ten years fully a half-dozen electric interurbans have been built on paper, surveys run and rights of way secured and then something always interfered when the actual construction of the road was ready to begin.

However, the Chicago & Wisconsin Valley street railway has actually begun building tracks from Madison to Portage and are now at work in Madison laying their extension on West Washington avenue in that city towards Portage. Next year they announce they will commence building south to Janesville. The company holds a franchise from Deloit to Merrill, and will work out in each direction until these points are reached.

The purpose of the officials of the line is not to handle simply a passenger business, but to run freight trains which will handle a package business and bring the produce of the farmers to the cities which it touches. It is believed that this will, in fact, be the larger part of the business, and will be a great aid in developing the farming country of central Wisconsin.

The Madison papers have been following to say of the work in Madison which may be interesting to persons who earnestly long for interurban connection with Madison:

"The Chicago and Wisconsin Valley Street Railway company has added a big spur to its force at work on East Washington avenue, and will immediately start work at two other points within the city on its line from Madison to Portage. It is probable that the line through the city will be practically completed before work is halted by snow.

"About half a mile of track has already been laid on Milwaukee street and East Washington avenue. As soon as the company can obtain all of the men which it wants, work will be started on its right of way running along the Illinois Central tracks on the southwest side, and on the line which will cross Lake Monona.

"The company has been unable to obtain enough men in Madison to handle the work, and has been forced to import men from Milwaukee and Chicago. About 200 laborers will be at work on the track when the full quota of the gangs arrives.

At Work in Portage.—
"Work has been in progress in Portage for some time."

"The line will run from Portage through Prairie du Sac and Wausau, and will enter Madison from the west along the Illinois Central tracks. It will come down past the Illinois Central depot, and turn up West Washington avenue to the square. Around the square the tracks of the Southern Wisconsin railroad company will either be used or new tracks will be laid. The line will leave the square at East Washington avenue and will run out to Milwaukee avenue.

"It has not yet been definitely settled whether the line to the south will leave Washington avenue at a point just beyond the river, or whether it will connect with the tracks now laid on Milwaukee street. In the former event, the tracks out to Milwaukee street will be used as a spur.

"The line about Lake Monona is much desired by real estate men who have holdings about the lake. The construction of this division, it is thought, will make possible the settling of the lake shore with summer cottages at points now inaccessible to people living in the city, except by automobile or carriage. In this way the value of the lake as an ideal spot for summer recreation would be realized in full."

RECEPTION FOR PASTOR WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

La Prairie Pastor Has Best Wishes of His Friends As He Takes Up University Studies.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
La Prairie, Sept. 28.—The reception for Rev. Rosenbury was well attended in spite of the unpleasant weather. A pleasant social time was spent and refreshments consisting of coffee, cake, sandwiches and salad were served. Rev. Rosenbury departed for Evanston on Tuesday where he will take up his studies at the Northwestern university. The best wishes of his friends go with him.

Personal.
Miss Lorretta Lono of Janesville attended the reception at F. Bradford's. Mrs. Theodore Lono of Clinton visited her sister, Mrs. Will Kopka, on Monday.

Mrs. E. L. Eaton of Madison is spending the weekend at Norman Howard's, visiting her son, Starr.

Mrs. Alvin Moley visited relatives in Elkhorn last week.

Vernie Breitkreutz spent Monday in Madison.

Albert Breitkreutz of Lake Mills, Wis., spent last week with his uncle, A. H. Breitkreutz, at Janesville.

Miss Charlotte Williams spent Sunday at her home in Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Moley were very pleasantly surprised, Tuesday evening, when about forty-five relatives and friends walked in and reminded them of their fifth wedding anniversary. The evening was spent very pleasantly in playing cards, Bert Horn taking first prize and Stanley Conroy second. In behalf of those present, Mr. Hawley of Clinton presented the couple with a handsome bookcase as a token of remembrance. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John Terwilliger were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Griffo, on Sunday.

Miss Mae Ownby and Myrtle Howard spent one day last week with Mrs. C. Hartshorn.

Prevented Sale of Wife.

John Tower endeavored to sell his wife, Elizabeth, at auction in London in June, 1817, but the authorities prevented the sale.

TO EXAMINE CADETS FOR ARMY AND NAVY

Rock County Boys Desiring to Enter
West Point or Annapolis Can Be Examined Here in December.

Word has been received from the State Civil Service Commission by M. P. Richardson of this city, that a competitive examination will be held here Dec. 2, 1911, at the special request of Senators La Follette and Stephenson, for all candidates desiring appointment as cadets to West Point and Annapolis. Senator La Follette will appoint the boys standing first and second, and those in third and fourth rank will be named as alternates. Candidates standing fifth and sixth will be given honorable mention.

This will give Rock county boys who desire the best preparation possible for an army or navy career, an excellent opportunity, and announcement is made that investigation as to requirements for entrance and other items of interest in connection with the work. A large class of candidates is expected.

MOOSE ENTERTAINED LADIES LAST NIGHT

First of Series of Ladies' Night Entertainments Held in Lodge Rooms
Last Evening.

Members of the local lodge of Loyal Order of Moose last evening gave an entertainment for their ladies in the lodge rooms on North Main street, the first of a series of ladies' night entertainments. A bounteous repast was served, covers being laid for one hundred and fifty guests. The balance of the evening was given over to cards and dancing.

During the winter months the ladies will have the use of the club rooms on afternoon each week for the entertainment of their lady friends. A committee composed of Mrs. George C. Harrington, Mrs. Fred Koebelin, Mrs. Will Taylor, Mrs. B. D. Rutter and Mrs. Charles Fosmire, was chosen last evening to have charge of the weekly gatherings of the ladies and keys to the lodge rooms were given the members of the committee.

CAINVILLE CENTER.

Cainville Center, Sept. 28.—On account of illness Ella Townsend had to leave Lydia Schumacher teach for this week.

Mrs. Leslie Townsend and children went to Madison Wednesday to visit her parents.

Dr. Lacey was called to see Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodcock Tuesday.

Mrs. Edith Townsend and grandson visited in Footville Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Woodcock have gone to Harbison to visit the latter's parents and attend the fair. They have entered their baby in the baby show there.

Frank Bennett transacted business in Hanover Wednesday.

The real estate agents are quite plentiful around here. Several farms in this vicinity are in their hands for sale.

A. E. Townsend was a Janesville visitor Thursday.

Edith Harvey went to Chicago Tuesday to purchase a carload of sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodcock returned Saturday from Chicago, where they had been visiting the past week.

Robert Achison assisted B. T. Anderson to invoice his stock of goods at Dayton the fore part of the week.

HOAG'S CORNERS.

Hoag's Corners, Sept. 28.—Mrs. H. Rowe and friend, Kittle Cummins of Chicago are spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Howe's sister, Mrs. J. Crowley.

Miss Blanche Rice, teacher in District No. 7, spent Monday night with Mrs. Husker.

Miss Mayme Stricker is sewing the present week for Mrs. M. Conner's.

Tom Costigan of Janesville spent last Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Ann Costigan.

Miss Minnie Lipke and brother, Willie, spent Wednesday evening with their brother, Herman Lipke.

A number of young people spent one evening with Mrs. J. Crowley.

Mrs. August Wagner and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. Quorrey, a few days.

Mrs. E. Barber and children of Chicago spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Husker.

PORTER.

Porter, Sept. 28.—Miss Shirley Meyers of Evansville spent Monday night with Miss Ethel Van Wart.

Lew Van Wart and family of Evansville, were visitors at the home of Charles Van Wart and family Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Van Wart left Tuesday for Evansville to visit relatives and friends before their departure to their new home in New Mexico.

Jack Adams spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. John Crall.

The Ladies Aid Society which was held at the home of Mrs. John Brunsell Tuesday was largely attended, both afternoon and evening and a good sum of money was realized.

WILLOWDALE.

Willowdale, Sept. 28.—Contractor M. L. O'Neil of Leyden, began work on the county road through Willowdale last Tuesday.

Michael Mooney has returned home after spending a few days in Madison and Sycamore.

Miss Edith Clapp was an over-Sunday visitor at the home of John Ellis.

County Commissioner S. S. Jones was here on business Wednesday.

Mrs. A. Ross spent Thursday with her brother, Wm. Grunzel.

Peter Mooney delivered cattle to Janesville Monday.

Joe Fisher of Faith, S. D., is visiting at the home of his parents.

NORTHWEST LA PRAIRIE.

Northwest La Prairie, Sept. 28.—Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Elsie Peltis, Sept. 13, at her home at Deloit, S. D. Mrs. Peltis had a number of acquaintances near here who will be sorry to learn of her death.

Miss Marie Henderson of Fort Atkinson spent Sunday with her parents.

UNCLE WALT

The Poet Philosopher

Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams

BY WALT MASON

I am the fountain of virtue, and I am the moral law; and all the other fellows are effigies made of straw. I am the sun that warms you, and I am the driven snow; and others who say they're honest are out for the wind of dough. I am the glowing beacon and I am the lifeboat crew; and most who dispute my virtue are landing ball con to you. I am the calm and solace, I am the solace that leads; and all of these other fellows are fooling you with their speals. I am the twilight anthem, and I am the dawn of morn; the world was a void before me—at merit with me was born. I am the people's comfort, that causes their tears to dry; all merit to me is lying, and merit with me will die. I am the song that cheers you, and I am the voice of fame; and men who reject my teachings are running a bunko game.

THE REFORMER

PLUMPTON.

Plumpton, Sept. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Egan entertained the following at dinner Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Heyorahl and daughters, of Deloit, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Perkins and Mrs. Mrs. Lewis Perkins and daughter of Newark, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rheinhardt and sons.

Mrs. Fred Edridge of Deloit was the guest of Mrs. John Emerson the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Bert and Mrs. Crosby and daughters, Alta and Vivian, of Rockford, are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Royce and son spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Royce of Newark.

Mrs. Mary Emerson of Deloit spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. John Emerson.

Durwin Pathurst and sister, Miss Elsie, of Juda, were guests at the home of their uncle, Charles Egan, last week.

W. A. Royce purchased fifty acres of the Jonas Inman farm recently.

Frank Dearhammer of Chicago is calling on old friends in this vicinity.

HANOVER.

Hanover, Sept. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walters, who have been visiting at Portland, Ore., returned home last Friday.

Wm. Schrader, Mrs. H. C. Dettmer, Miss Josephine Kabin and Miss Tina Lockfield attended the Elkhorn fair last week.

Mr. Hub and Mrs. Lokerman of Janesville were callers here last week.

Frank Ross attended the fair at Madison last week.

There will be services in German next Sunday morning at the Brick church at half past nine o'clock, and in English at half past ten o'clock.

Fred and Raymond Dettmer of Janesville spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Dettmer.

Miss Donnie Gough of North Plymouth was a caller here Saturday.

Mrs. Lizzie Sorenson and daughter of Janesville visited her parents from Saturday till Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sarno of Clinton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Damron.

Harry Dettmer went to Milwaukee last Friday and returned home Wednesday.

Ed Hoover of Edgerton was seen on our streets Sunday.

Wednesday to see Mr. Rolf who was Wednesday to see Mr. Rolf who was very sick.

A. W. Kneff of Janesville Piano Firm, Co. spent Wednesday here.

Geo. Ehringer of Chicago is visiting relatives here.

Wm. Drew of Footville is grading the road of the Northwestern railroad.

REUNION OF IND FAMILY HELD AT MILTON, SUNDAY

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Milton, Sept. 29.—A family reunion of the Ind families was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hudson. There were present five brothers and sisters who had not been together for many years.

Mrs. Mary A. Sullivan, Mrs. H. F. Hudson, Mrs. Lewis H. Ind and William Hudson, were in a list of all who were present.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hudson, Frank Blaisdell, Wm. P. Ind, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davidson, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Campbell, Miss Vera H. Lynde, Janesville; Mrs. Sarah E. Hurd, Clear Lake, Iowa; Mrs. Mary A. Sullivan, Hancock, Wis.; Lewis H. Ind, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Garrison, Oshkosh, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. George Ind, Whitewater, Wis.

FOLKS PAST FIFTY Must Use Cascarets

What Glasses Are to Weak Eyes,
Cascarets are to weak bowels—a 10-cent box will truly amaze
you.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect the gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

KING'S DAUGHTERS TO MEET AT MILTON

Gathering of All Organizations in State Will Be Held in Milton
Next Week.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Milton, Sept. 28.—A meeting of the members of Circles of King's Daughters in Wisconsin will be held in the S. D. B. church in Milton Monday, Oct. 2, at 2:30 p. m., to organize the Wisconsin State Branch of the "International Order of the King's Daughters, and Sons."

Mrs. Isabelle Charles Davis, 2nd Vice President of the Order will preside.

On Monday evening at the S. D. B. church at 7:30, Mrs. Davis will deliver an address on the work of the order to which all are most cordially invited. No admission fee, and no collection will be taken.

President Dahm will give an organ selection at the opening. Everybody come.

Arthur H. Castle of the Milwaukee Fire department is visiting his sister, Mrs. E. S. Dubosek.

E. L. Cary of Long Beach, Cal., has been in the village this week.

W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. J. J. Bennett Tuesday.

Miss Sewell of Stoughton, visited Miss L. E. Walker this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Koch of Fairdale, Ill., are visiting at J. C. Goodrich's.

The Fire Department was called to Peterson's mill this morning by a fire in the engine room, but it was extinguished without much damage.

ATTENDED MEETING OF CORDA FRATRES

Editor Lochner of Wisconsin Alumni Publication Has Returned From Extended Tour of Europe.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 29.—Louis P. Lochner, editor of the Wisconsin Alumni Magazine, returned to Madison yesterday from a trip abroad. He attended the faces congress in London, the meeting of the executive board of the International teachers' congress in Berlin, and the biennial convention of the Corda Fratres (brothers in heart) in Rome. At the latter meeting it was decided to hold the 1913 convention at Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y.

Mr. Lochner is one of the original promoters of the Corda Fratres, which is an outgrowth of the Cosmopolitan club movement in this country which practically originated at the University of Wisconsin.

During the meeting at Rome, Mr. Lochner presented the Italian group with a Wisconsin pennant, and received in return from the hands of the officials, mayor of Rome, as a mark of personal esteem, a large Italian flag. The American delegates were the nuclei of many extra distinctions and Italian hospitality apparently knew no bounds.

While in Paris Mr. Lochner and his party visited the Louvre and saw the Mona Lisa, and vainly tried to fathom the expression of La Gioconda. Two weeks later while in Vienna they read in the papers of the pricelessness painting's mysterious disappearance.

Mr. Lochner said that while in France and Germany he noticed little if any popular concern over the Moroccan situation, then engaging the diplomats.

MONTICELLO.

Monticello, Sept. 28.—Jacob Aukman had business at Monroe on Monday.

Miss Marie Goldman was in Monroe a short time Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Rusterholz of Wells, Minn., arrived here recently and is the guest of Mrs. R. Karlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crouch of Washington township, were Monroe visitors Monday.

A. Wulfschneider, the jeweler, was off on a business trip to Insko Monday.

Fred Schilt was calling on Monroe relatives and friends the first of the week.

Miss Ina Schuler went to Freeport this morning for an indefinite period, going there to remain with her mother, who is at the St. Francis hospital.

W. E. Hubler after spending a few weeks at home, returned to Madison Monday morning to resume his studies at the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob E. Blum of Washington township, welcomed a new son into their family on Monday.

Budy Schilt left Sunday for the northern part of the state in the interests of the New Way Motor Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hyde and son, Leo, drove to Monroe Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lee Kilgore of Madison, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Steinman.

R. A. Barney returned to Milwaukee Monday afternoon, after a short visit here.

FOLKS PAST FIFTY Must Use Cascarets

What Glasses Are to Weak Eyes,
Cascarets are to weak bowels—a 10-cent box will truly amaze
you.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect the gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

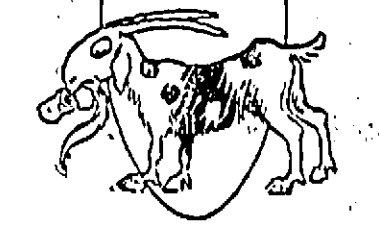

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets

CURRENT WIT and HUMOR

Played a Lone Hand.
An old army officer, according to Mrs. Custer, had a 4-year-old boy who never tired of war stories. Again and again they were related to him till he knew them so well that he would not permit the slightest variation.

"The story is a little rough on me," said the officer, "but if you know a child, you know that he wants a plentiful sprinkling of lies, and nothing told in the third person. So I kept on as he demanded, till one day he looked up in my face and said:

"Father, couldn't you get any one to help you put down the rebellion?"

LITTLE SURPRISES.

"Mr. Shunk, I find that this line fence encroaches about five inches on your property. I am going to move it back."

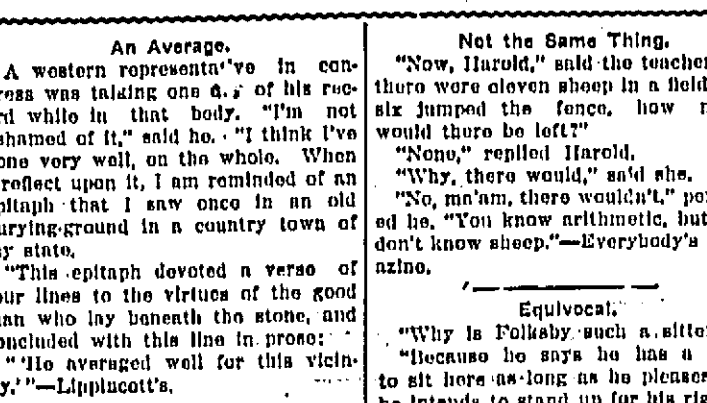

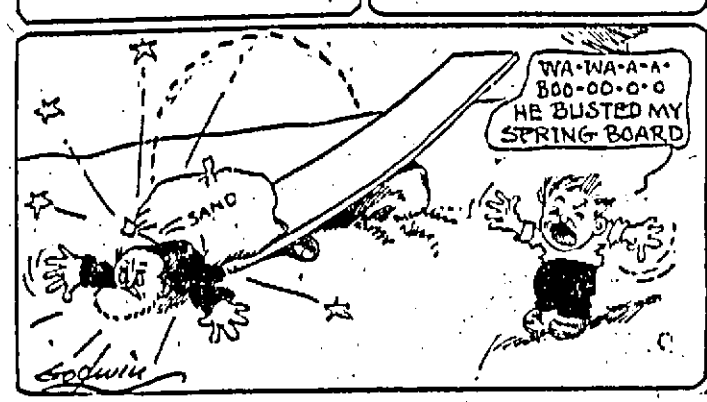

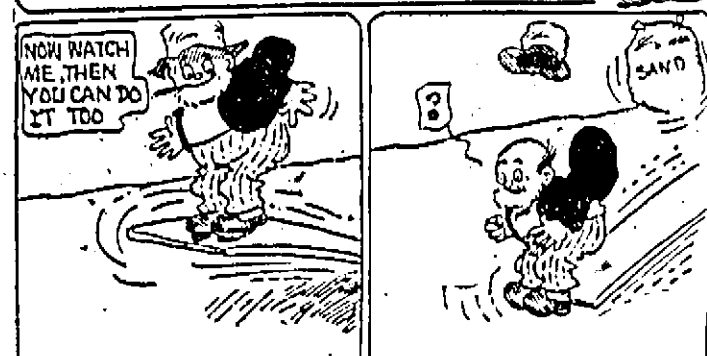

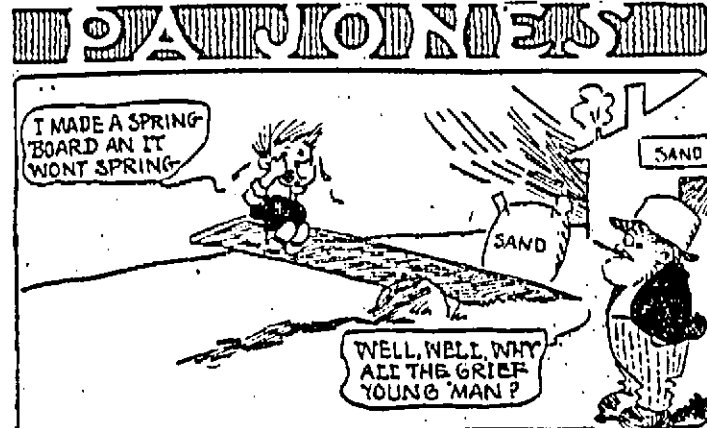

"Hold on, mister, you don't have to advertise your lost pocket book. You will see by an ad. we printed this morning that it has been found."

"Pardon me for breaking it to you abruptly, Bithers, but you have been so faithful an employee that we are going to give you a month's vacation this year."

"Why are you trying to get rid of that mining stock, you luncheon? Don't you know they've struck pay dirt?"

"You don't need to look so scared, madam; the tooth is out."

"If you insist on my naming the day, Jack, how will next Thursday do?"

AN AVERAGE.

A western representative in congress was taking one of his reports while in that body. "I'm not ashamed of it," said he. "I think I've done very well, on the whole. When I reflect upon it, I am reminded of an epitaph that I saw once in an old burying-ground in a country town of my state."

"This epitaph devoted a verse of four lines to the virtues of the good man who lay beneath the stone, and concluded with this line in prose:

"He averaged well for this vicinity."—Lippincott's.

NOT THE SAME THING.

"Now, Harold," said the teacher, "if there were eleven sheep in a field and six jumped the fence, how many would there be left?"

"None," replied Harold.

"Why, there would," said she.

"No, ma'am, there wouldn't," persisted he. "You know arithmetic, but you don't know sheep."—Everybody's Magazine.

EQUIVOCAL.

"Why is Folksby such a sifter?"

"Because he says he has a right to sit here as long as he pleases and he intends to stand up for his rights."

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Dane County Fair was a decided success, the receipts footing up to over $2,600.

W. H. Ebbels, of this city is one of the attorneys for the defendant, Martin, in the murder trial now in progress at Elkhorn.

The clothing store of Echlin & Foote was entered by burglars, last night, and some forty dollars worth of goods and about ten dollars in money taken.

The Denver & Rio Grande narrow gauge track is completed forty-three miles from Denver. It will reach the foot of Pike's Peak about October 15.

JOHNSTOWN.

Johnstown, Sept. 23.—Mr. A. Peterson received the sad message of the death of his sister, Mrs. Bessie Hanson of Phoenix, Arizona, who died on the 17th. Mrs. Hanson and family moved to Phoenix some two years ago in hopes her health might be benefited but gradually failed. She leaves an aged mother, two sisters, one brother in Richmond and one brother in Johnstown. The relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cora were called to Loganville, Tenn. to attend the burial of his father who died after a short illness.

Miss Lena Ryo entertained the Evansville Camping Club, numbering twenty-four guests, Thursday afternoon, in honor of her sisters, Mrs. Horace Merrill of Phoenix, Mrs. Fred Winston of Evansville.

John Mawhinney, one of our popular bachelor boys, is driving around in a new automobile and next we will listen for wedding bells.

Lawrence McKee has vacated the Durban farm and rented Wm. Lamb's farm for the coming year.

The new barn on the Murphy farm was raised Thursday afternoon and at six o'clock a tempting luncheon was served.

A number from here attended the barn dance at C. Stoll's Wednesday evening.

John Ward is assisting Thomas Canney in putting in a cement floor in the new barn.

FOOTVILLE.

Footville, Sept. 24.—Miss Helen Charlton and her grandmother, Mrs. Nichols, are visiting in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Nettie Horton was an over Sunday guest of her sister, Mrs. Rasmus Pepper.

Miss Margie Silverthorn spent Sunday with Mrs. Helen Silverthorn.

The Ladies Aid Society of the

At New Lisbon, the streets are thronged with wagons loaded with cranberries, which sell at $1.50 a bin. Twenty thousand bushels are held in store waiting for shipment.

A tremendous fire is raging in the timber of the Big Cottonwood mining district of Utah.

Bernard Costello resigns his position as a member of the Tammany general committee, on account of the dishonesty of the chiefs.

Yesterday United States Marshall ejected all the settlers upon Rancho Cortez, Matamoros Del Presidio, Maricao County, recently confirmed as a Mexican grant.

Methodist church will serve a chicken pie supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cory Wednesday, October 4, beginning at six o'clock. Everyone is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Taylor were Footville callers on Tuesday.

The shower given by Mrs. Will Howard on Tuesday for Mrs. Clyde Snyder was a very enjoyable affair, and quite a collection of nice pieces of granite were left for the bride.

After a delightful afternoon of music and visiting an elaborate lunch was served.

Rev. Louis Watson has returned from his vacation and services will be held as usual each Sunday.

PARKER'S CORNERS.

Parker's Corners, Sept. 28.—Miss Edna Shoemaker and friend, Miss Gardner of Janesville, were Edgerton visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Kneeland spent a few days last week at Madison.

A few in this vicinity have sold their tobacco. The crop looks fine.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Russell attended the Elkhorn fair last week.

Clarence Story of Spokane, Wash., is visiting at Chas. Davis' and other relatives.

L. J. Caldwell delivered hogs to Janesville, Wednesday.

Stairs Practically Indestructible. A flight of stairs has been erected in Paris over which fourteen million persons have passed without so much as scratching the surface. These steps are almost imperishable, for in the concrete of which they are constructed a generous proportion of carborundum has been introduced, and since carborundum is almost as hard as the diamond, it has given the concrete a wearing quality which no marble or granite could possibly approach.

NOTES FOR CITY FARMERS ONLY.

By H. L. RANN.

While we only have a speaking acquaintance with the jack rabbit, the offensive familiarity of that animal must be a greater trial than a brain-losing maul.

Out in Idaho they grow a rabbit which has no more regard for the sacred things of life than a Pol-Angus steer and which is as fearless as a bol-torous spinster at a postoffice party.

During a camp meeting near Boise this other day one of these rabbits crawled under the tent during a season of prayer and chewed the shoe laces off of a good sister who was tracing the footsteps of a large, male pin-bug which had secreted itself in her elbow.

On another occasion, a jack rabbit with prominent teeth and obscure family connections, mounted up the steps of the main hotel in Low-lion and ate a pair of elastic garters out of a stout guest who was im-mersed in sleep and a chaste cont of effervescent perspiration. Attempts have been made to reduce the diet of the jack rabbit by charging him with chocolate fudge and pop corn balls, but you might as well try to popularize the tooth brush in the henery.

The only really effective treatment is to lay for him behind a hedge fence and run an assortment of buckshot through his internal mechanism.

Every farmer ought to have a stop for his disc harrow. It is neat and inexpensive, and when hung in the parlor makes a nice ornament. We advise against the use of the self-stopping harrow. It is not practical and is liable to bleed the hired man when in perfect health.

Presently.

Presently it will be possible for a man to become famous by having a wife who has never been operated on for anything.

MUSIC, AND THE HOME

No home was ever so complete without music. Let me place the BOUDOIR PLAYER PIANO in your home. Catalog free.

H. F. NOTT

Carpenter Block. Janesville, Wis.

Presently.

Presently it will be possible for a man to become famous by having a wife who has never been operated on for anything.

MUSIC, AND THE HOME

No home was ever so complete without music. Let me place the BOUDOIR PLAYER PIANO in your home. Catalog free.

H. F. NOTT

Carpenter Block. Janesville, Wis.

Special Sale

In making changes, we need room and will sell until October 3rd—

One new 22-ft. launch, never used, splendid hull, cost $235.00, at $175.00.

One 5-h. p. rebuilt marine engine, $45.00.

One 5-h. p. new marine engine, demonstrator, $70.00.

Special discount tomorrow on new models—2, 4, 5, and 10-h. p. engines to be delivered in 30 days.

One new 2-h. p. stationary engine, $50.00.

One 6-h. p. stationary engine, $90.00.

$8.00, foot power grinder stand, $3.50.

Other odds and ends to clean up.

Bicknell

Mfg. & Supply Co.

JANESVILLE, WIS.

Sanitary Towels

The law compels the use of sanitary towels in the schools and all buildings where towels are used. This includes factories, stores and offices.

These towels are put up in rolls of 200 each. They are 10 1/2 inches wide and perforated every 22 inches.

We supplied the School Board and are prepared to furnish them in any quantity.

If interested, call by either telephone and we will call and show samples.

W. E. CLINTON & Co.

27 South Main Street.

Read the Ads and get acquainted with the live merchants.

If You Are Looking For a Pleasant Room in a Better Locality, Use a Gazette Want Ad

WANTED.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—Students, to take private lessons in arithmetic, grammar, shorthand, or guitar, by ex-teacher and stenographer. Address Teacher, care Gazette.

A WOMAN having the afternoon at her disposal would like employment, collecting preferred. Address "1020" Gazette.

WANTED—To buy. Second-hand heater. State price and make. Ad. "Heater," Gazette.

WANTED-FEMALE HELP.

WANTED—Experienced girl for general housework. No washing. Good pay. Mrs. H. H. Milw, 120 Jackson St. Phone 512.

WANTED—I wish to find a girl or woman who wants a home in a good family with warm room and pleasant surroundings, who will assist with housework. No washing. Must be able to do plain cooking. For such a person I can offer good pay and agreeable situation. Address Mrs. S. J. J. Gazette.

WANTED—Immediately, two cooks. Good wages. Phone places. Also kitchen girl. 522 W. Milw. St. Old phone 420.

WANTED-MALE HELP.

AGENTS WANTED all through Rock county to sell the Universal Lifter. Farmers buy them right. Women or children can sell them. Invest six dollars and make good wages. Write to Geo. N. Barber, Harvard, Ill. for agencies.

WANTED—Electric light meter testers and inspectors, by large public service corporation in middle west. Men who have had experience in electric light work can secure good positions where advancement is assured to men who prove capable. Prefer those who have had technical training along electrical lines. State salary expected and give references. Address "Position," Gazette, sept29-out2oct1.

WANTED—Pin boy at Bowling Alley. 13 N. Main St.

WANTED—Immediately, plasterers at the new postoffice building, Beloit, Wis. Good wages. W. A. Davino, Supt. Tel. 4472.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Four room flat, 3 connected rooms, 2 furnished rooms. Preferred.

FOR RENT—Suite of modern furnished, heated rooms for light housekeeping. 28 East St. North. 72-31

FOR RENT—One large furnished room (desirable for two gentlemen, without board, 103 S. Academy St.

FOR RENT—Cottage 101 So. Main next to Library. Inquire next door.

FOR RENT—Four unfurnished rooms suitable for light housekeeping. City water, electric and gas. 270 S. Jackson St.

FOR RENT—House, barn and two acres of land. 419 Ringold St. Inquire at house across street. 71-31

FOR RENT—New 7-room house and large barn on Highland Ave. Call new phone 975. 69-31

FOR RENT—7-room house on Ruger Ave. Gas, city and soft water, and small barn. Eng. 718 Prairie Ave. Old phone 863. 71-31

FOR RENT—Eight room house at 402 So. Wash. St. Full lot and barn. 71-31

FOR RENT—To lady. Nicely furnished room in Michael's Apartments; strictly modern. Mrs. A. J. Penfold. 68-11

FOR RENT—Large barn. C. A. Sauerhorn property, corner S. Third and Park Sts. Room for six horses and wagons. Inquire at Lower City Bank. 3-11

FOR SALE-Real Estate

FOR SALE—The Dr. Chittenden residence on North Academy St. Modern, street improvements all in, barn, large lot. Must be sold immediately to close estate. Price $2,500. E. W. Lowell. 71-31

TO CLOSE AN ESTATE, the following property will be offered for sale: One farm of 8 1/2 acres just outside of city; 1 100 acre farm near Blind Institute; one 128 A. farm on Hanover road. For further particulars see Geo. H. Crane, 221 S. bluff St., Janesville. 66-11

FOR SALE—100 acre farm, choice land, good buildings, 5 miles from Janesville, R. P. D., telephone. Selling on account of poor health. H. A. Mosser. 71-31

FOR SALE—120 acre farm in town of Harmony; some pasture and some timber land. Good buildings. Suitable for stock farm. Inquire W. L. Bruce, Clinton, Wis. 49-261

FOR SALE—New 6-room cottage with city water, electric lights and gas. Possession given at once. Inquire New phone 313 red. Old phone 1146.

FOR SALE.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR SALE—Scratch tobacco, big size, for sale at Gazette office. 72-11

FOR SALE—One buggy, 1 buggy, 1 wagon, 2 go-carts, 1 stovepipe, 1 sewing machine, 1 gent's bicycle. Phone 1508. 72-31

FOR SALE—One large size coal stove, one steel range, both nearly new. New location, good value. Old phone 425. 615 Pleasant St. 72-31

FOR SALE—Ford touring car, 1910 model, fully equipped and in first-class condition; 4 new tires. $100. Address Box 148, Gazette. 72-31

FOR SALE—Cedar posts. Phone for prices. Both phones. What T. Decker. 72-31

FOR SALE—Piano now at club house on Golf grounds. This piano is a fine instrument of standard make and was new last April, and sells regularly at $300. Case shows some effects of use. Go and try it. You can buy it for $140 cash; not one dollar less. A. V. Lytle, 317 W. Milw. St. 72-11

FOR SALE—Sixty cords dry second growth wood. Will deliver or sell on the ground. H. A. Botta, Milton, Wis. Milton telephone. 71-21

FOR SALE—One second-hand Kroll McCormick Husker in first-class condition. I will make a price on this machine that will move it. Nitecher Implement Co. 71-21

FOR SALE—Complete delivery outfit. Horse, harness, blankets, wagon with runners for winter. Wagon has just been rebuilt and repainted. Helms Seed Store. 70-11

FOR SALE—Restaurant, furnishings, including tables, chairs, sideboard, china closet, small steam table and some dishes. Will be open in new location, 52 Court street, on Monday, October 2. Mrs. Florence McKee, formerly at 52 S. Main St. 71-31

FOR SALE—Coal heater. 368 South Franklin St. 69-31

FOR SALE—Two gilt edge hot air furnaces, 46-inch, in perfect condition; also one large Round Oak style heating stove. May be seen at the Masonic Temple or call on C. H. Weirick at Rock Co. Nat'l Bank. 67-31

FOR SALE—Heavy wood boxes. They can be bought at as cheap a price as kindling. Call Gazette office.

FOR SALE—Ten sets of second hand wheels, seven second hand wagons and harness, springs, and lamps. Russell's Truck, Bus and Bargeage Line. 49-11

FOR SALE—An 8-foot cigar case, Dan-laney & Murphy. 49-11

FOR SALE—125 high school single seats, in first class condition. Inquire Board of Education, Edgerton, Wis. 64-11

FOR SALE—Heavy wrapping paper for laying under carpets. Gazette office.

FOR SALE—Young cattle, $18 and $20 apiece; mostly Durhams. T. E. Macklin, 317 Dodge St. 66-11

FOR SALE—Brown Leghorn roosters, 600. J. A. Biel, near Beet factory, Rock Co. phone. 71-31

FOR SALE—Fifty extra choice pure, brood Duroc Jersey pigs, of March and April farrow, both sexes, bred by Delancey, son of the undefeated champion bear Defender, twice grand champion at International. B. W. Little, Route 7, Janesville, Ill. phone. 66-11

FOR SALE—Fifty extra choice pure, brood Duroc Jersey pigs, of March and April farrow, both sexes, bred by Delancey, son of the undefeated champion bear Defender, twice grand champion at International. B. W. Little, Route 7, Janesville, Ill. phone. 66-11

FOR SALE—Fifty extra choice pure, brood Duroc Jersey pigs, of March and April farrow, both sexes, bred by Delancey, son of the undefeated champion bear Defender, twice grand champion at International. B. W. Little, Route 7, Janesville, Ill. phone. 66-11

FOR SALE—Fifty extra choice pure, brood Duroc Jersey pigs, of March and April farrow, both sexes, bred by Delancey, son of the undefeated champion bear Defender, twice grand champion at International. B. W. Little, Route 7, Janesville, Ill. phone. 66-11

FOR SALE—Fifty extra choice pure, brood Duroc Jersey pigs, of March and April farrow, both sexes, bred by Delancey, son of the undefeated champion bear Defender, twice grand champion at International. B. W. Little, Route 7, Janesville, Ill. phone. 66-11

FOR SALE—Fifty extra choice pure, brood Duroc Jersey pigs, of March and April farrow, both sexes, bred by Delancey, son of the undefeated champion bear Defender, twice grand champion at International. B. W. Little, Route 7, Janesville, Ill. phone. 66-11

FOR SALE—Fifty extra choice pure, brood Duroc Jersey pigs, of March and April farrow, both sexes, bred by Delancey, son of the undefeated champion bear Defender, twice grand champion at International. B. W. Little, Route 7, Janesville, Ill. phone. 66-11

FOR SALE—Fifty extra choice pure, brood Duroc Jersey pigs, of March and April farrow, both sexes, bred by Delancey, son of the undefeated champion bear Defender, twice grand champion at International. B. W. Little, Route 7, Janesville, Ill. phone. 66-11

HOUSE CLEANING MADE EASY. Oriental Rugs should be cleaned by no other than the Vacuum Process. Have your rugs and carpets cleaned on the floor by ordering the Auto Vacuum Cleaner. F. H. Porter. New phone 413 white, or Peoples' Drug Store. 70-11

LANDS.

FARMS FOR SALE—Southwest Iowa is one of the best agricultural districts in the world, and the Daily Nonpareil practically the only daily paper read in this territory. It is published morning, evening and Sunday, and with its 17,000 circulation covers the field like a blanket. If you want results from your advertisement, try it. One cent a word for the first insertion, and one-half cent a word for each subsequent insertion. Classified in display, 25c an inch. The Daily Nonpareil, Council Bluffs, Iowa. 46-11

ADVERTISERS—In placing your ad three things must be considered—circulation, class of readers and price. The Reporter gives you ad greater measure of service for less money than any other newspaper in Northern Iowa. The Reporter is read by 30,000 people every issue. Advertising rates one-half cent a word, each insertion. Cash with order. Reporter, Waterloo, Iowa. 46-11

FIND LAND BUYERS through advertising in the Daily Journal-World, Lawrence, Kansas. The farm lands about Lawrence are the finest in Kansas and therefore are high priced. Young farmers are looking for cheap farms. The Daily Journal-World has a sworn circulation of 5,500, about half of which is in the country and carries a full page of Want Ads. Rates, 1c per word 1 time, 3/4c per word for one week. The World Company, Lawrence, Kansas. 68-11

ADVERTISERS—The Hutchinson Daily News, with a guaranteed average circulation of 9,235 for the month of April, 1911, affords the best advertising medium in Hutchinson. Population 16,572, and the Arkansas Valley (the Garden Spot of the World). Rate 1 cent per word, per insertion, cash with the order. News, Hutchinson, Kansas. 47-11

IF IT IS A FAIR you want to sell or trade, or real estate you want to get action on, there is but one paper in the southwestern part of Nebraska that reaches the people you want to do business with, and that is the Hastings, (Nebr.) Tribune, daily and weekly. 48-11

ADVERTISERS—The great state of North Dakota offers unlimited opportunities for business classified advertisements. The recognized advertising medium is the Fargo Daily and Sunday Courier-News, the only seven day paper in the state and the paper which carries the largest amount of classified advertising. The Courier-News covers North Dakota like a blanket; reaching all parts of the state the day of publication; it is the paper to use in order to get results. Rates: one cent per word first insertion; one-half cent per word succeeding insertions; fifty cents per line per month. Address The Courier-News, Fargo, N. D. 20-11

ADVERTISERS—The great state of North Dakota offers unlimited opportunities for business classified advertisements. The recognized advertising medium is the Fargo Daily and Sunday Courier-News, the only seven day paper in the state and the paper which carries the largest amount of classified advertising. The Courier-News covers North Dakota like a blanket; reaching all parts of the state the day of publication; it is the paper to use in order to get results. Rates: one cent per word first insertion; one-half cent per word succeeding insertions; fifty cents per line per month. Address The Courier-News, Fargo, N. D. 20-11

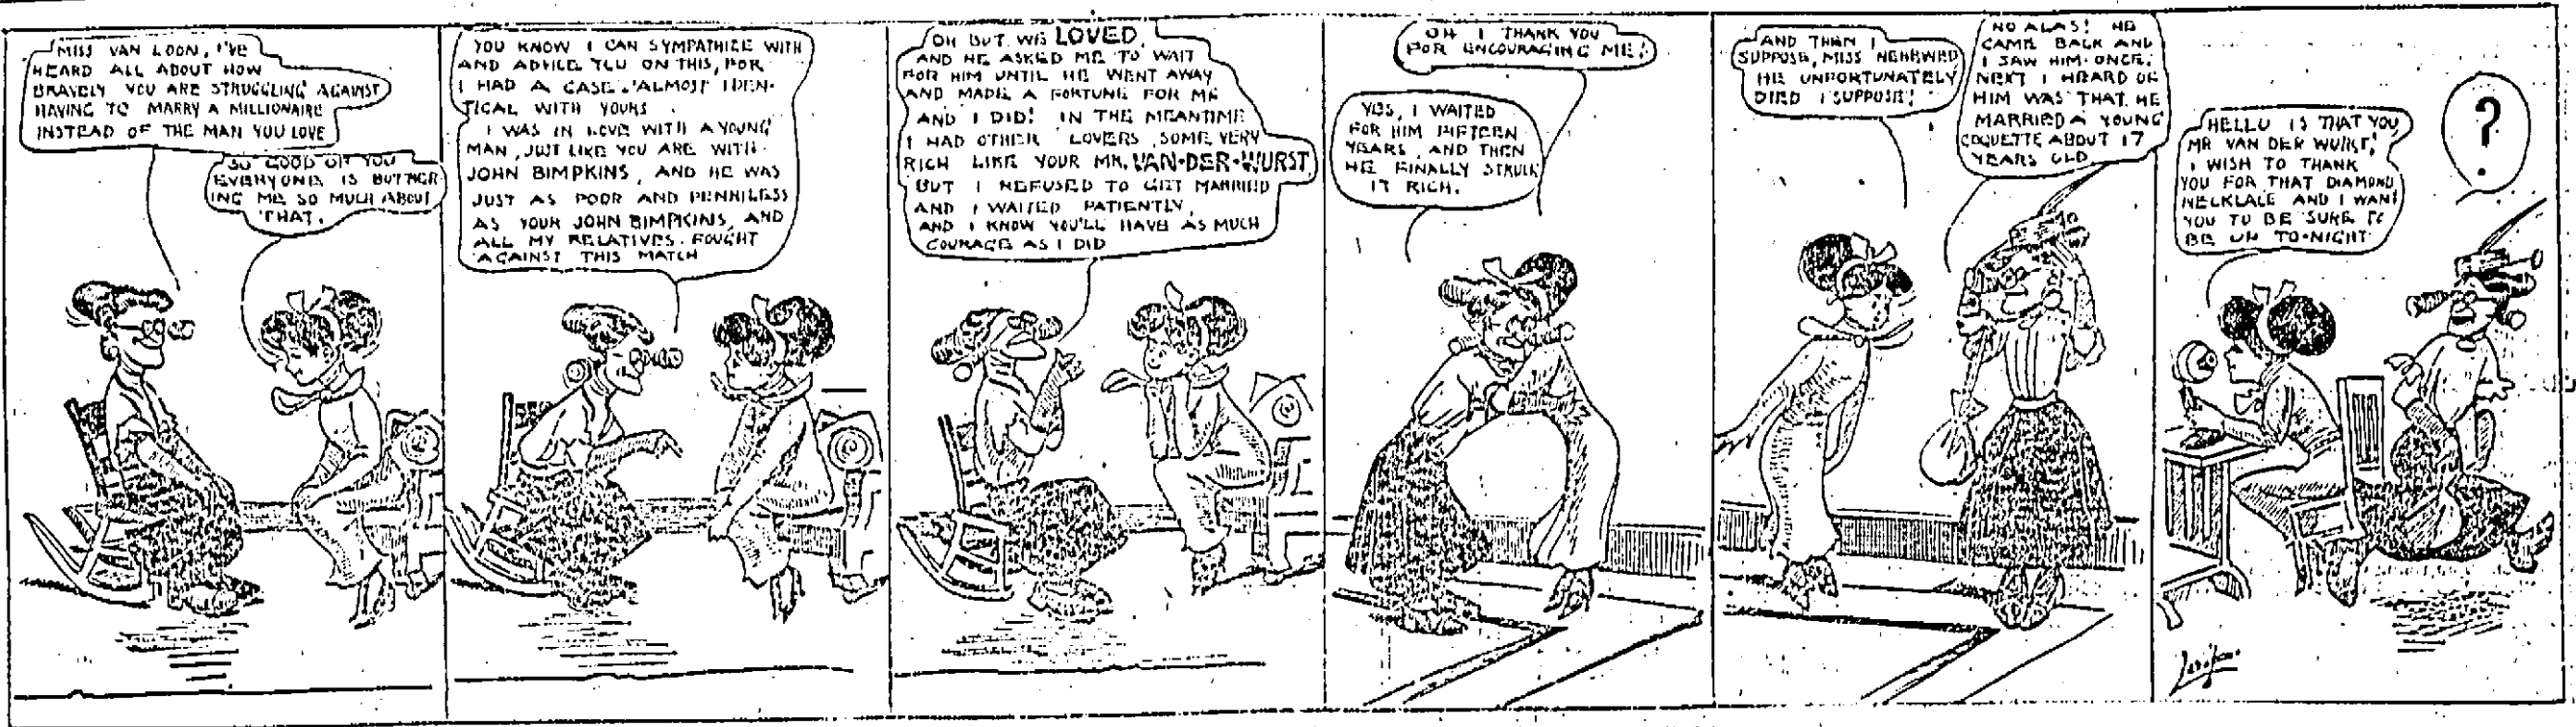

ADVERTISERS—The great state of North Dakota offers unlimited opportunities for business classified advertisements. The recognized advertising medium is the Fargo Daily and Sunday Courier-News, the only seven day paper in the state and the paper which carries the largest amount of classified advertising. The Courier-News covers North Dakota like a blanket; reaching all parts of the state the day of publication; it is the paper to use in order to get results. Rates: one cent per word first insertion; one-half cent per word succeeding insertions; fifty cents per line per month. Address The Courier-News, Fargo, N. D. 20-11

ADVERTISERS—The great state of North Dakota offers unlimited opportunities for business classified advertisements. The recognized advertising medium is the Fargo Daily and Sunday Courier-News, the only seven day paper in the state and the paper which carries the

JOHN RYAN, Auctioneer.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—They were a little stronger on love in the olden days, all right.

NO MAN'S LAND A ROMANCE

BY LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WATERS

COPYRIGHT, 1911 BY LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

At this the man pulled up at a distance of a few feet, within the radius of lantern light. "Steady!" he begged between gasps. "I've . . . beaten 'em out. . . . Plenty of time. . . ."

"What's your game now?" demanded Coast coldly, his attention distracted by the comforting sound of dipping oars and squealing rowlocks behind him.

"Game!" The man's eyes caught a curious glint of light from the lantern as they shifted swiftly, glancing side-long. "Game!" he iterated in broken and hollow tones. "I'm in no shape for games now! For God's sake don't be hard on me. I've come to give myself up—to surrender."

His announcement fell like a thunderclap. Momentarily Coast discredited his sense of hearing. "Surrender?" he muttered, incredulous. "You?" He cast a quick, cautious look round. There was no one else within the limits of his vision—not a figure nor a moving shadow. His gaze returned to the huge, quaking shape before them; Blackstock in a panic, trembling with fear and exhaustion, his plump face turned a pasty, unwholesome shade and largely blotched with dull, burning red, eyes like knots showing too much white and rolling restlessly, loose mouth a quiver, hands shaking, breath coming and going with a sound resembling the exhaust of a skipping motor. "The devil!" said Coast to himself; and aloud in accents hard and unrelenting: "You'd best explain . . ."

With a sudden movement, the woman touched his arm.

"Don't trust him, Garrett!" she exclaimed. "You don't know him—don't, don't trust him!"

"I've no intention—" Coast began.

Incontinently they were treated to the incongruous spectacle of Blackstock on his knees, humbling himself first to the woman, then to the man he had wronged, fat, mottled, tremulous hands imploring them. "No!" he prayed, coarsely pitiful. "Don't say it! Have a little pity! My God! don't you know I'm dying? Don't leave me here to die like a dog, in the name of mercy!"

"Dying?" Coast repeated, while Katherine bent forward, peering steadily into the man's face. "What do you mean by dying?"

"Don't you understand—can't you see?" The plump, spotted hands flung at his throat; for the first time Coast remarked that it was banded, and began to comprehend what frightful fear was bringing the man to his feet. "That damn dog," Blackstock breathed convulsively—"he's done for me, if I don't get help—medical help—quick. He's torn my throat to tatters," he whispered; "I'm poisoned, poisoned! If you leave me here, I'll go mad and die mad—hydrophobia! Good God, have pity!"

He broke down completely for a moment or two, whining and blubbering and wringing his hands. It was plain that he was badly frightened, and not without reason.

Coast glanced at Katherine; she wore a face of doubt mirroring his own perplexity, but when she caught his eye upon her, responded with a nod and a shrug.

"I think we'll have to . . ."

"Of course," she answered listlessly. "Look here, Blackstock!" At Coast's sharp and frigid address, the man quivered abruptly, and apparently coming to a realization of the spectacle he was making of himself, got slowly and shamefacedly to his feet. "If we agree to take you off the island, you know what it means? I'll turn you over to the police, first place we stop."

"I don't care," Blackstock asserted eagerly. "I don't care a damn. I'll go anywhere, do anything—go to the chair, if I have to—work out my life in the pen—anything but stay here and go mad. I've been a cur, I know, but for the love of God don't leave me to die like one—"

"Hello!" Behind the trio the keel of a rowboat grated on the sand, and Appleyard, jumped briskly ashore, trotting up, painter in hand. "What's this?" he demanded briskly. "Hello, Coast! Madam, your servant. Now, what's the row?"

He put himself in the center of the group, "bright watchful eyes diagnosing, one expression after another on the countenances round him; with something in his pose and manner singularly suggestive of an exceptionally intelligent and inquisitive magpie."

Coast dropped a hand affectionately on his shoulder. "Thank heaven, you're here at last," he said. "And here's your prisoner—take him in the name of the law and for the sake of peace. He's been badly bitten first by a dog and then by fright, and he wants to give himself up and be sent to a hospital."

"Oh, that's it, eh? I heard a bit of the confab while rowing in, and it sounded uncommonly interesting; but I couldn't figure out what was at the bottom of it all. Well, well, Mr. Blackstock! The little man rubbed his hands. "I'm glad to come up with you. This is more fun than a goat, for sure. Come!" He jerked his porky little head toward the tender. "Jump in, and I'll hurry you to market."

A sudden look replaced the terror that had masked Blackstock's face. He sighed and with a brief, uncertain nod, apparently directed at Coast, collected himself and trudged heavily toward the boat, entering which he squatted silently in the stern.

Appleyard's eyes sought Coast's. The younger man lifted his shoulders, disclaiming honor or responsibility. "When the devil was sick," he quoted in disgust, lowering his tone. "Keep an eye on him!"

"Well, rawther," Appleyard drawled. "But he won't try any monkeyshines aboard the Echo—or I never saw a man afraid of his sins before. . . ."

Madam," he added, turning with a curious little courtly bow to the woman. "If you'll step in—his glance traveled past her down the beach—"we'll beat that pack to the mainland. I see," he said, "they're launching a longboat. What kind of a yarn explains that, please?"

Coast recounted with exceptional brevity the wrecking of the schooner, at the same time stepping into the boat and placing himself at the oars, on the middle seat. Katherine sat forward, behind him, and Appleyard, pushing off, scrambled aft and dropped down beside Blackstock, who sulkily moved to one side to make room for him.

"Look lively, Mr. Coast," he little man advised pleasantly. "We really haven't got a minute to spare—those chaps are laying to their oars as if they really wanted to scrape acquaintance with us. Or perhaps," he suggested with a look askance at Blackstock, "my cheerful prisoner can account for this apparent mad anxiety of theirs to bid their dis— I mean distinguished leader a fond farewell."

Blackstock, fumbling nervously at his banded throat, made no answer. Coast, bending all his strength to the oars, drove the dory swiftly toward the Echo.

"Blackstock," said Appleyard, ironic. "What you got in that neat little bag between your feet? The conventional pyjamas and toothbrush, what?"

The tormented man at his side grumbled something inarticulate.

"Did I understand you to imply it's none of my business? How extraordinarily rude, Mr. Blackstock! Besides being untrue—quite a naughty fib. In addition to which it's peculiar for; I know."

"You know?" Blackstock turned to him with a scowl.

"Sure. I can put two and a millstone together and make a hole in a ladder just as easy as take a silk purse out of a sow's ear. It wouldn't be you, Mr. Blackstock," Appleyard continued without giving his victim time to analyze this astonishing statement—"it just wouldn't be you if you didn't try to hand your friends the double-cross. That bag's stuffed with loot—the best part of the truck they were running this trip—jewelry, for a dollar. And that's why, you see, they're so infatuated with the idea of shaking your hand and wringing your neck before you get away; they've just discovered your perfidy. But don't you fret. Here we are and long before they can drive that spinobout this far we'll be sailing merrily away."

With this assurance Appleyard rose, catching the Echo's side as Coast slipped his oars and the dory glided smoothly alongside the larger vessel. "Steady on!" he said. "Coast, you first, and give a hand to Mrs. Blackstock. Now, you—Mr. Blackstock, when Coast had helped Katherine into the cockpit—"and step lively! Your companions in crime are a bit too close for comfort. . . . Coast, I suggest that Mrs. Blackstock step below until we get under way; there's not to be a bit of shooting, I'm afraid, if we don't look sharp."

Katherine sought Coast's eyes; he nodded a grave affirmation into hers. "Only a few moments," he said, offering her his hand. Without a word she accepted it and let herself down into the dark interior of the cabin.

"Now, Coast, the anchor—lively!"

Coast straightened up hastily. Blackstock was in his way, standing in the corner of the cockpit between the cabin-trunk and the coaming, while Appleyard was hurriedly taking up the engine-pit hatch. So the younger man stepped unhesitatingly to starboard across the counterboard trunk into the very arms of calamity.

What followed fell like a bolt from the blue and passed with its rapidity. Appleyard stood to port with his back to Blackstock, in the act of putting the hatch aside. Coast on the seaward side was on the point of lifting himself to the top of the cabin, with intent to go forward and cast off the anchor. There was creaking in his mind the vilest hint of a suspicion that the blackness in the shadow of the unfurled canvas, above the cabin, was more dense and tangible than it should be, when this shadow, seemingly with a single movement, rose above him like a cloud, towering as huge and terrifying, its black human bulk blotting out the blazing stars, as the faded flames of the fisherman's bottle loomed menacingly above him in the enormous nakedness of Chang, and fell upon him with the fury and ferocity of a panther.

For a few chaotic seconds he remained conscious, feeling himself crushed and borne down irresistibly to the deck, then lifted like a bag of grain and hurled directly into the black, gaping maw of the companion-way.

Something came in painful contact with his skull, and the world went up in a blaze of crimson flame. . . .

CHAPTER XXI.

Through the empty muck of the blasted, blackened world strange ghosts of thoughts, cares, strange blind weeping faces of things that he had known scurried like mice through the night of an empty house, came out of darkness, passed into darkness, and returned, plucking at him with weak, futile hands, crying importunately for heed and recognition; but when he tried to know them, they were gone, leaving only the ache of effort. . . .

Then suddenly he was conscious, lying at the bottom of a pit of everlasting midnight, his limbs constrained in unnatural positions, his head racked by splitting pains, but singularly, softly pillowed, his face gently bedewed with drops of moisture, soft and warm. He struggled to rise, stirred, murmured incoherently, and slid back into insensibility.

When again intelligence returned to him, there was light—a strong and yellow glare flooding the cabin of the Echo from the lamp rocking in its gimbals overhead. A face bent above his—Katherine's; his head lay in her lap; and another face, Appleyard's, was close beside that falter one. On both he read anxiety, compassion and solicitude.

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

"A little something of everything unpleasant," said Appleyard. "You had a nasty fall and pretty nearly cracked that solid ivory skull of yours. I've had a bit of a shake-up, extremely detrimental to the admirable pulse of my nervous system; and Mrs. Blackstock has experienced a shock and a fright that didn't do her any particular amount of good."

"Yes, but . . ."

Coast reviewed their position in a comprehensive survey of the cabin. They three were prisoners, huddled together in close captivity; the companion doors were closed and undoubtedly locked—since otherwise Appleyard would long since have had them open; for the air in the cabin was hot and oppressive. Katherine was looking pale and worn, Appleyard bright but distinctly worried. Coast himself was suffering severely from the blow on his head and a broken scalp, which Katherine had bandaged as best she could with two handkerchiefs. Insofar, their condition was unpleasant and uncomfortable; external circumstances rendered it distressing and apparently dangerous. . . .

(To Be Continued.)

"Hello," he said weakly. "Feeling better?" asked Appleyard. "Some," Coast essayed a smile, and made a failure of it, then with a sudden return to memory put forth an effort that cost him the agony of feeling a jagged tongue of flame lick through his brain, and sat up. "What's happened?" he asked thickly.

THEATERS

A Real Aviator on the Stage.
The story is of Robert Street, author of a book entitled "The Aviator," who is visiting at a summer hotel. The people discovering his identity think, from the realistic descriptions of flying in his novel, that he must have had practical experience, and he encourages this belief even to the point of posing as a great aviator and telling, each time with more exciting variations, the story of his first trip in an airplane, which occurred at night. His thrilling experiences captivate the feminine hearts about him, including the very warm one of Miss Grace Douglas, who proves to be the one girl in the world for Street. Such are the conditions which exist when the play starts. The rising of the curtain finds Street in no end of trouble.

GEORGE DAMEREL, WITH "THE HEART BREAKERS," MYERS THEATRE, FRIDAY, SEPT. 29.

for Gallard, a real French Aviator with a pilot's certificate has come to the hotel and offered to race with Street. Caught in his own trap, so he worries himself sick over the possibility of the flight. Then one of his friends evolves a great scheme. At a near by Aero Club is a mechanic named Robinson, who is reported to have had great success in teaching men to fly. It is planned to send for Robinson and persuade him to act as Street's mechanic. When the flight starts Street is ostensibly to take Robinson up as a passenger, while in reality it will be the mechanic who drives the machine. This seems practical, so it is announced that Street is to carry a passenger. There is a laughable climax to the first act when, with the announcement just made, Robinson enters and is seen to be an enormous man weighing over 350 pounds, who is too heavy to operate, even alone, a biplane of the type then in use, not to mention the possibilities of his flying with a passenger. It appears that Robinson teaches from the ground, and that he has never been up himself. Street is resolved to go ahead with it, and he gets all the information he can and puts it in a note book which he is to carry with him on the flight. The climax of the second act comes when he is obliged to sign a contract to fly, after he has all but decided to leave the hotel, or tell the truth. The third act is both tense and laughable, the scene being before the humor on the day of the flight. Finally when no more delay is possible, Street goes out. His plane is seen to leave the ground and he rapidly sails away from the hotel. Once up he is afraid to come down. He circles about madly over the country, telegrams being received from various points as to his evolutions. Finally comes the disheartening news that he has dropped his notebook. His friends give up all for lost. But still stays up and finally lands a few miles from the hotel after travelling 70 miles about the country.

At Myers Theatre, Monday, October 2, Matinee and Evening.

In the meantime his friends have made it known that he has never flown before, but this does not matter, for he has shown his true colors and the play ends happily with Miss Douglas, his promised wife.

"The Aviator" will be seen at Myers Theatre Monday, Oct. 2.

"Busy Izzy."
George Sidney in the furiously funny musical comedy "Busy Izzy" will shortly be "in our midst." This play is beyond a doubt the most popular of its kind on the road. During the many weeks of its tour last season it played to a succession of crowded houses, and requests for return dates were so many that the management is considering sending out a number two company. The original company

RUSSIAN DANCERS MAY BE SEEN IN JANESVILLE AT MYERS THEATRE SOON

Manager Myers Receives Letter From Famous Company Relative to An Engagement.

Peter L. Myers has received a letter from the management of the famous Russian dancers who seek an engagement in Janesville during November. This company travels in special cars and is one of the most noted in the country. Its orchestra alone numbers forty pieces. It will be impossible to book them for the date they seek, but it is possible that matters can be arranged so they will appear here later in the season.

HEALTHY CONDITION OF LIFE INSURANCE BUSINESS IN STATE

Is Revealed in Annual Report of Commissioner of Insurance Issued Today—Figures Given.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 20.—The annual report of the commissioner of insurance on life and casualty companies, for 1910 business, issued today, shows a very healthy condition of Wisconsin life companies, and reveals an unequal proportion of expense to premiums in different forms of casualty business. The Wisconsin life companies show, in general, business of stable character and the lapse ratio is low.

Companies Are Many.
There are 148 companies, associations and organizations licensed by the department, of which 16 are life insurance companies, 15 surety corporations, 31 stock casualty companies, five assessment life associations, 15 assessment accident associations, 42 fraternal societies and four life stock insurance companies. Now life companies admitted were the Guardian Life of Madison, and Old Line Life of Milwaukee. New casualties are the Rigely Protective association, Worcester, Mass.; Time Insurance Co., Milwaukee, and Wisconsin National Life (incident department), Oshkosh. The Live Stock Insurance Co., of Menomonie Falls, Wis., was admitted.

The present year also has seen several new companies admitted. Total taxes and fees paid by Wisconsin life companies aggregated $40,375.26, and by life companies of other states $27,350; by casualty companies $29,851.87; by assessment accident associations, $307 (few); by fraternal societies, $2,615 (few only); by life stock companies, $181.64; total $78,472.75.

Expense and Income.
The total expense of the insurance department for 1910 were $32,161.15, this including salaries. The total premium income of Wisconsin life companies was $39,067,260.42 and their total income $52,387,475.25. Their total amount paid policyholders was $32,917,492.80 and total disbursements $40,251,309.80. The total premium income of companies of other states was $288,633,471.66 and total income $363,165,740.10; their total paid policyholders, $161,026,127.73 and their total disbursements $234,962,929.99.

Wisconsin companies issued policies in the state last year amounting to $12,292,962; outside companies issued policies aggregating $35,928,674.32, an increase over 1909 of $4,600,436 and $17,321,583.91 respectively. Claims paid and compensated during the year were: Wisconsin companies, 40, amount, $1,170,482.79; outside companies, 3,614 amount $2,258,935.22.

Casualty Business.
The total income of suretyship corporations (casualty) was $37,203,373.94 and their total disbursements $31,593,816.96; of other casualty insurance corporations, total income, $63,100,303.77, total disbursements, $48,625,910.30. Total premiums received on casualty business in Wisconsin were as follows: By suretyship corporations, $602,169.89; by all other casualty companies, $1,201,209.22. Suretyship corporations paid losses of $194,589.66 and all other casualties $573,452.80.

The total income of fraternal societies was $74,095,725.30, as compared with $60,145,044.10 in 1909. Total benefits paid were $57,523,708.26; expenses of management, $8,637,263.33; ratio of expenses to losses paid, 15.137. The excess of assets over liabilities of these societies was $85,709,329.41. The benefit certificates increased in 1910 by $5,010,791.50, and claims were paid amounting to $63,401,492.87. In Wisconsin paid claims aggregated $2,241,594.92.

The report contains a summary of

AN OLD REMEDY

Beef, Iron and Wine is one of the good old remedies that has outlived a score of patent tonics, reasonable in price, a satisfactory tonic, appetizer and mild stimulant. There is nothing better for that tired, worn-out, less feeling or run-down condition of the system after illness of any kind. It tones the whole system, stimulates digestion, gives you appetite, is a good iron tonic for weak, pale children or old people, far more effective than malt extracts or so-called wine of cod liver oil that depend upon their stimulants alone. Beef, Iron and Wine tones and sustains, it assists nature to recuperate, it's a food to the sick and nursing mothers.

Mr. Pfennig, our Graduate Pharmacist and Chemist, prepares our Beef, Iron and Wine. It's always fresh, made from the very best extract of beef, wholesome, properly aged sherry wine and soluble iron.

We don't sell ready-made, hand-made, factory-manufactured Beef, Iron and Wine. We believe and know that medicine should be compounded only by the experienced and scientifically trained.

new legislation relating to insurance, excepting fire insurance, which is treated in the fire report.

Read the Ads and get acquainted with the live merchants.

Misplaced Confidence.
Confidence in an unfaithful man is like a broken tooth and a foot out of joint.—Proverbs of Solomon, 25:19.

Political Pickings.
The poet—"My friends say this poem reads like one of Tennyson's." The Editor—"So it does—almost word for word."—Brooklyn Life.

Reaching the Limit.
"Women are gradually taking men's places in everything." "Possibly, but it will be a long time before we hear of the brides being dressed in 'conventional black.'"—Judge.

HERE THEY ARE

The Latest Novelties For Fall and Winter

Special!

Special!

For TOMORROW ONLY, an imported true blue serge suit to your measure $20
An English Worumbo striped Kersey Overcoat to your measure $20

COME SEE AND SAVE
No such values ever offered in Janesville before. We are the people that satisfy. CLEANING AND PRESSING A SPECIALTY.

Janesville Tailoring Co.

313 W. MILWAUKEE ST.
Between Jackson and High Streets
Open Evenings Until 9 o'clock

Value for your money is the most important point in buying clothes; it's our most important point in selling.

YOU PAY GOOD MONEY FOR CLOTHES; IF it were bad money nobody would take it; you're entitled to good clothes for it. No reason why you shouldn't get the best.

YOU'LL get here the product of the best makers; with our best judgment as buyers added; with our expert service as sellers to help. Hart Schaffner & Marx fine suits and overcoats; special weaves, patterns, styles exclusively produced for us; $18 to $40.

THE greatest stock of fine overcoats ever shown in Janesville: new weaves, new models: Raglans, English slip-ons, raincoats, button through, English box and others, $15 to $40.

Young men's snappy styles; nothing ever done has made such a hit as our young men's stock; Shape-maker, Varsity, English Sack, and lively overcoat styles a-plenty. Young men's clothes $15 to $40.

Get under one of these swagger soft hats; a big variety to choose from, and not a slow one in the lot. Mallory Cravetted Hats, $3.00, a great value; Stetson's $3.50 upwards; Stetson's Special, $5.00; here only.

Wilson Shirts are certainly the best ready shirts made. They fit; so do the prices, $1.50 to $3.50.

You can outfit your boy here tomorrow at small cost; we're making a 10% discount on every article of children's wear. It's a good time to buy.

T.J. ZIEGLER CLOTHING CO.

JOSEPH M. CONNORS, Mgr.

The Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes. John B. Stetson Hats. Wilson Shirts. Lewis Underwear. Mallory Cravetted Hats.

Specialists in Good Clothes and Nothing Else.